Trucker Hurt As Train Hits Rig On Track

Homeworth Driver Hospitalized After Crossing Mishap

A 25-year-old Homeworth man escaped with comparatively minor injuries when a freight train demolished his tractor - trailer early today on the Walnut St. crossing and a 20-year-old East End girl was injured severely a few hours earlier when her car went out of control and sheared off a utility pole on the River Rd., police reported.

Ronald Burke, the Homeworth trucker, is in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital with two lacerations of the right eyelid and abrasions of the left knee and the scalp.

Turned sideways by the crash, his tractor - trailer destroyed the guard gate and the unoccupied watchman's shanty at the crossing, officers said. The crash was timed at 4:25 a. m. The tractor of the rig was demolished, police said.

E. D. Polen, 57, of New Albany, Ohio, was the engineer of the eastbound diesel freight, which proceeded to Conway after the crash, officers said.

Burke told police he brought his rig to a "running stop" as he approached the crossing, headed south about two miles an hour. Seeing no train, he started across the tracks and the last thing he remembers is the headlight of the locomotive bearing down on the rig, he said.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. engineer told police he could not see the rig on the tracks because his post is on the opposite side of the locomotive cab. When the train was about five boxcar lengths from the crossing, the firemen saw the rig, but it was too late to halt, he said.

The train proceeded about 600 yards before halting, officers said. Its speed was estimated at 35 miles an hour. The crash damaged a foot board and rail on the locomotive and broke the air brake hose, officers said.

The crash occurred in the interval when the manually - controlled gates at the crossing were unattended. Central Station firemen were called to the scene to standby in case of fire.

Severely injured when her car hit a River Rd. utility pole 300 feet east of Walnut St. at 1:37 this morning, Miss Louise Suillivan, 1900 Michigan Ave., was in "fair" condition today at the hospital.

She suffered fractures of both ankles, an open fracture of the

Pottery Negotiators Get Down To Business

Negotiators for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters and the U. S. Potters Association were to get down to actual deliberations today at Cincinnati in their efforts to agree on a new contract.

The present contract expires Nov. 30. The union is seeking a "substantial" wage increase and improvements in health and welfare benefits.

The two groups met for the first time Tuesday but the session was only for the purpose of "getting acquainted."

City Will Act On 5

County Vote Due On 26 Questions

Columbiana County will vote on 26 special questions and issues, principally proposed bond issues and tax levies, at the general election Tuesday.

They include statewide and countywide questions, which means that every voter will get ballots on at least two special issues.

There is a proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution to legalize sale of certain commodities on Sunday and a levy of seven-tenths of a mill sought for improvements at the County Home.

EAST LIVERPOOL will vote on five special issues, including the state and county questions. The 1-mill firemen's levy is up for renewal, along with two school district propositions — renewal of a 3-mill levy and a new 2-mill levy.

East Palestine has the greatest number of special propositions — four. They include renewal of 1-mill city levies for park operation and street maintenance, a new 5-mill school district levy and renewal of another 3-mill levy, also for school purposes.

At Wellsville, the spotlight will center on a proposed $250,000 bond issue for construction of a combination City Hall - Post Office. The Wellsvlle School District also will vote on a new 5-mill levy.

Of all the propositions on the ballot, the Wellsville city bond issue is the only one that requires more than a majority for approval. It must have at least a 55 per cent affirmative vote for enactment.

SALINEVILLE village will vote on a new 2-mill levy for replacement of its system of fire hydrants. Washington Township, in which Salineville lies, will ballot on renewal of a 2-mill road levy.

Knox Township has two propositions on the ballot for renewal —2 mills for road purposes and a seven-tenths mill measure for fire protection.

In Elkrun Township, voters will act on a question on sale of liquor by the glass — a move to legalize whisky in its lone tavern.

Other propositions are:

West Township, renewal of a 2-mill levy for roads; Fairfield-Waterford School District, renewal of a 6-mill levy, and United Local School District, a renewal and an increase totaling 4.2 mills.

Voters in small segments of Columbiana County will act on bond issues and tax levies proposed in

New Satellite Blasted Into Orbit By U.S.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A flashing light "firefly" satellite soared into orbit today to measure the size and shape of the earth in an experiment which could produce more accurate world maps and establish guide lines for tracking men to the moon.

The 355-pound satellite, named Anna, rocketed away from Cape Canaveral at 3:08 a.m. atop a Thor-Able-Star booster. An hour later the Defense Department announced it was in a successful orbit about 700 miles above the earth.

The first stage pushed the package to the edge of space. The second fired for two minutes, then shut down and coasted for 25 minutes before restarting its engine to eject its satellite into orbit high above Ethiopia at a speed of nearly 18,000 miles an hour.

Officials reported that clear signals were being received from the payload.

Because the rocket was fired on a northeast heading in the direction of the Soviet Union, the Defense Department announced time and direction of launching in advance. Sources said this was done to alert the Soviet Union so that the Russians would not mistake the rocket for a hostile missile.

Told To Quit Harassing Meredith

Rowdy Ole Miss Students Get Warning From U.S.

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Amid signs of new trouble, the Justice Department sent its No. 2 man to the racially troubled University of Mississippi on Halloween eve.

Rowdy students quickly got this warning: quit harassing Negro James H. Meredith or face federal contempt charges.

Nicholas Katzenbach, the deputy attorney general, flew in from Washington in the wake of a firecracker barrage on Meredith's dormitory Monday night.

L. L. Love, dean of students, later told a group of students Katzenbach had announced that anyone arrested in future disturbances would be charged with contempt of federal court.

Tom S. Hines, director of student personnel, gave announcements of the warning to the campus radio station for broadcast, quoting Edwin O. Guthman, Justice Department press officer.

Even as Katzenbach flew in, trouble flared anew on the campus where rioting killed two and injured scores because of desegregation just 31 days ago.

Somebody threw a soft drink bottle at a car carrying Meredith. The bottle crashed through the closed window of a rear door. Fragments of glass cut one of the four federal marshals riding with Meredith.

The incident occurred as Meredith returned to his dormitory from dinner in the student cafeteria.

Katzenbach's appearance gave an indication of the importance the Justice Department attaches to the possibility of more trouble over Halloween — traditional holiday for mischief-makers.

Suspect Who Fled Deputies Held In Theft

Salem District Man To Be Returned To Mahoning Officials

SALEM — Daniel Leyman of R. D. 4, who fled two deputies then was recaptured, was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Tuesday under $500 bond for the theft of a pickup truck used in his getaway.

The 28-year-old laborer pleaded guilty to stealing a truck belonging to Salem man at a preliminary hearing before Judge Luther Donbar in County Court.

He was returned to Salem jail to await transportation to Mahoning County today for prosecution in burglaries.

Leyman, who was to have been arraigned Tuesday morning in Youngstown on two Mahoning County burglary counts, had been in Mahoning County jail there since Wednesday.

Late Monday afternoon, Mahoning County deputies, in an effort to recover some stolen guns and ammunition which Leyman had hidden in a woods, accompanied the prisoner to the spot.

Guns, ammunition and numerous cartons of cigarettes had been placed in two gunny sacks by Leyman before his arrest last week and were hidden under leaves in a woods about 400 feet from his home on the Western Reserve Rd.

After showing the officers the loot, Leyman expressed a wish to see his parents. He also told the officers that there was a gun under his bed at home "which they might as well pick up."

The officers took Leyman to his home and removed his handcuffs. Leyman was showing the officers where the weapon was hidden when suddenly he leaped through a window and ran into a woods.

About 8:30 p. m. Monday, Salem police were informed by Mahoning deputies of his escape.

About 5:30 a. m. yesterday, Lt. Robert Kirchgessner was driving a cruiser on E. State St. when he saw the other Salem cruiser circling the Old Reliable Drive-inn. Pulling up to the restaurant, Kirchgessner was told via radio by Patrolman Richard Whinnery,

War, No Truce, Say Cuba Revolutionaries

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban revolutionaries made it clear today that despite U.N. acting Secretary-General U Thant's mission to Havana they mean war, yes, truce no.

The Cuban Revolutionary Council sent word to Thant that any deal he might make with Fidel Castro would not block armed action against the dictator.

The council, major anti-Castro alliance, declared it could not recognize a pact with the Cuban regime, which it called a Soviet province.

Anti-Castro groups girded for war despite what appeared a cooling-off period during Thant's Cuba visit. Generally they expressed little concern over President Kennedy's promise not to invade Cuba if Soviet missiles are withdrawn. They indicated there are other means of ousting the Castro regime.

Contract Let On East End Post Office

C. J. Bosco To Build Facility For Lease At $4,000 Yearly

Charles J. Bosco of Park Way has been awarded a contract to erect a new one-story brick building at 1173 Pennsylvania Ave. for lease to the Post Office Department as its Station A facility, Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced today.

Bosco, president of Riverview Orchids, Inc., said construction will begin within two weeks.

Rep. Hays said postal authorities have awarded Bosco a contract to lease the structure for 10 years at $4,000 a year, with two five - year renewal options.

East End's branch Post Office now is located on Mulberry St., where it moved over a year ago. It formerly was located for many years in part of the building of the First Federal Savings & Loan Co. on Pennsylvania Ave.

The site of the new building now is a vacant lot about two blocks east of Boyce St. It has 66 feet of frontage on Pennsylvania Ave.

The new structure will be entirely of brick construction, Bosco said. The contract calls for 2,045 square feet of interior space, a loading platform of 216 square feet and 4,115 square feet of paved area for parking and truck maneuvering. The structure will be air conditioned.

The building was designed by Robert F. Beatty, East Liverpool architect.

Rep. Hays, advised of the contract award from Washington, released the announcement at his home office in Flushing.

The contract award followed a call for bids which the Post Office Department issued in August.

A group of civic leaders was promised at a meeting here in March that the Post Office Department would act as quickly as

Blaze Causes $2,000 Loss

Boy Discovers Fire And Alerts Family

A fire discovered by a 6-year-old boy caused some $2,000 damage to his parents' home in Wellsville Tuesday at 6:30 p. m.

The blaze was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman, 1433 Main St. Coleman, a truck driver for the city, was not home at the time.

But, his wife, son and two daughters escaped unharmed after the child gave the warning.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis said the blaze started in the second floor of the two - story frame home. It originated in a bedroom clothes closet.

Mrs. Coleman had sent her son upstairs. He discovered the blaze and then ran back down, shouting that the house was on fire.

Lewis said most of the damage was confined to the corner of the bedroom. The fire had reached the attic when firemen arrived, but it was stopped before it got through the roof.

Heavy smoke and heat damage resulted to the other rooms of the second floor. Some minor water damage occurred on the first floor. There was smoke damage throughout the entire home.

Lewis estimated $1,000 damage to the home and $1,000 to contents.

Fifteen men responded to the call. The cause was not determined.

Faces Tough Month

Pressures Seen Forcing Mr. K To 'Risky' Actions

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Nikita Khrushchev has a tough month ahead. And pressures on the Kremlin leader may induce him to take risky actions against his better judgment and once again head a nervous world toward the brink.

A week from now, the U.S.S.R. celebrates the 45th anniversary of the Bolshevik takeover of power. The Communist leadership likes to have some spectacular success to display for this anniversary. At the moment, it has none.

Two weeks from now, the Soviet Central Committee has scheduled an important meeting. It could be a grim session, with the Kremlin leadership facing up to some gloomy realities.

No matter how Soviet propaganda paints it for home consumption, Khrushchev backed down in the Cuban crisis and the party leadership is aware of that.

The Cuban crisis probably made some high officers within the armed forces unhappy. There are hints of disenchantment with Khrushchev's cold war generalship.

There's an annoying war going on along the Indian-Red Chinese border. It is embarrassing for Soviet policy.

Plans for new pressure on West Berlin may have gone askew because of the Cuban developments.

The Cuban crisis probably has made the Red Chinese and the Stalinists around the world furious. The Chinese once again are denouncing "modern revisionism," obviously meaning Khrushchev's policies.

Moscow seems to be running into resistance from the satellite states to plans for coordinating economies of the Communist world under Soviet direction as a

Rhodes Office Is Cleared Of Fraud Charge

GOP Aspirant Says Examiners' Report 'Vindicates' Him

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two accounting firms reported today they found no evidence of fraud in connection with rental or rental purchase payments involving adding machines in the office of State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

Rhodes, Republican nominee for governor, immediately asserted the report completely demolishes charges made by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. He added he believes the report is a "complete vindication" of examiners in his office.

DiSalle, who returned to Columbus about 3 a. m. from a campaign trip, was not available for immediate comment.

Rhodes told newsmen, "the report proves beyond the shadow of doubt that the governor's

150 At Dinner Event

Chamber Guest Assails State Industrial Climate

Ohio needs to regain a favorable industrial climate if it is to halt the exodus of factories and jobs, 150 Chamber of Commerce members were told Tuesday night by Thomas R. Johnson, executive director of the Ohio Manufacturers Association in Columbus.

Johnson spoke at a "Salute to Industry" dinner program at the Country Club, one of the highlights of Industry Appreciation Week which opened Monday.

Although he mentioned no names or party labels, he asserted that an unfavorable climate for business and industry has grown up in Ohio in the last four years, coinciding with the tenure of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Next Tuesday's general election offers the state the best way of altering its industrial climate, Johnson asserted. Again steering clear of party labels, he declared that the election of a governor, U. S. congressmen and members of the Ohio General Assembly is a choice "between two philosophies" of government.

Johnson declared that changes in unemployment compensation and workmen's compensation rules and a boost in franchise taxes have cost Ohio business an additional $139 million in the last few years.

He cited statistics to show that 142,000 jobs have been lost through industry moving out of Ohio since 1957, although he conceded some of the cut in the labor force may have resulted from automation.

There were 1,342,329 persons employed in manufacturing in 1957, compared with 1,199,642 in

First Parley Reported As Very Useful

Cuban Chief Sticks To Demands Which U.S. Has Rejected

HAVANA (AP) — Acting Secretary-General U Thant scheduled a second meeting with Prime Minister Fidel Castro today to try to win agreement for U.N. verification of Moscow's promises to remove its missiles from Cuba.

An initial two-hour, 10-minute session between Thant and the bearded Cuban leader made no headway Tuesday, informants said. Castro reportedly stuck to such demands as abandonment by the United States of its Guantanamo naval base in southeastern Cuba.

The United States already has rejected Castro's demands, made last weekend. He also demanded lifting of all economic measures against his regime and guarantees against hit-run raids and invasion preparations.

Despite the reported lack of progress, a spokesman for Thant called the meeting "very useful." A communique issued afterward said "Cuba fixed her position and viewpoints with clarity," which informants said meant Castro was unyielding in his demands.

President Osvaldo Dorticos took part in the meeting.

The U.S. naval blockade remained in suspension as Thant and Castro prepared for their second session. Thant asked that the blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba be lifted before he began his Havana discussions.

In Washington, informants said that although the blockade was suspended, the quarantine fleet of carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines was still on station but pulled into a more compact patrol area.

The United States also suspended its aerial surveillance of Cuba to ease the atmosphere for the Thant-Castro meeting.

Thant flew to Havana Tuesday to arrange for confirmation of the removal of the Soviet-installed missile bases under an agreement between Premier Khrushchev and President Kennedy. He also is seeking to set up negotiations to resolve all aspects of the U.S.-Cuban dispute. He told Castro in a letter Sunday he hoped the discussions would result in respect for Cuban sovereignty and in reassurance for other countries which have felt threatened by recent developments in Cuba.

Havana radio said Castro will

Chester Man Held; Another Due Hearing

A Chester man was arrested on a grand larceny charge Tuesday night and a Wellsville youth was jailed today in connection with the theft of $198 in cash from Goddard Bakers Sunday night.

Charlie Hall, 20, of Fairview Rd. was unable to post $1,500 bond after pleading guilty last night at a preliminary hearing before Squire Eugene Allison and was bound over to the January Grand Jury and taken to the Hancock County Jail. He was arrested last night at the bakery, where he was employed.

The mother of Gary Lee Call, 18, of 425 18th St., Wellsville, took him to the Chester City Building this morning after Wellsville police notified her he was wanted in connection with the theft. He will be given a hearing tonight by Squire Allison. Police Chief Clarence Lennens signed the complaint. The money was taken from the bakery office and some $75 was recovered.

Ohio Attitude On Plants Hit

1961, he said. Overall employment fell at the same time from 2,542,827 to 2,382,822, he said.

Johnson said industries are moving from Ohio to seek more favorable conditions in other states. He cited the impact on Massillon and Hamilton when large industrial plants closed in the two communities in recent months.

In addition to the state government's attitude, he blamed some of the industrial losses on community attitudes and hostility or lethargy in the work forces.

He laid down some guidelines for communities such as East Liverpool to follow in attempting to attract industry and share in the business boom that he said will result from the population explosion.

Johnson urged his audience to:

Support school financial issues to provide a good educational system; expand recreational, hotel and convention facilities; develop a "good labor attitude;" improve the appearance of the downtown area; offer attractive utility rates, and improve streets, highways and parking facilities.

Citing his experience when he drove into downtown East Liverpool yesterday afternoon in a rainstorm, Johnson declared he encountered severe traffic and parking congestion — conditions due to be relieved when the new West End-California Hollow Freeway opens shortly.

"I'm surprised that anyone goes downtown to shop here when it rains," Johnson said. "I found traffic jammed. I couldn't park or get into a service station. The lenses on the traffic lights are so dirty they're difficult to see. A policeman standing at a congested intersection was talking with two girls instead of directing traffic."

Although Johnson's appraisal of the industrial and business outlook was gloomy in part, it also was laced with optimism. The vast population growth due to result as World War II "war babies" become adults will mean unprecedented growth in most lines of business, including housing construction and auto sales, he said.

He urged East Liverpool to keep pace with the rest of the nation "to get your share." He also cited the rapidly-changing pattern in industrial employment, moving toward greater numbers of specialists and away from the ranks of the unskilled.

"Of all the scientists who have lived since the dawn of time, 90 per cent are living and working today," he said.

Turning again to the state government in Ohio, he said it "changed in the last four years from living within its income to a policy of giving everything away." "When the Legislature meets in January, one of the first items of business will be a deficiency bill of about $40 million," he said.

Johnson charged that high unemployment compensation payments are one reason industry is leaving Ohio. Payments in 1961 showed the highest average in the nation, he said.

"Jobs are needed, not benefits," he said. "Benefits will never equal jobs."

Johnson was introduced by Malcolm W. Thompson, chairman of the board of the Hall China Co. and immediate past president of the Ohio Manufacturers Association.

Alvin T. Babb, Chamber president, presided. He spoke briefly on the Industry Appreciation Week program, sponsored jointly by the C. of C. and the East Liverpool Merchants Association.

Invocation was by the Rev. Irwin E. Jennings of the Calvary Methodist Church.

Inspection Made On Freeway By State Delegation

A large delegation of State Highway Department officials from the central office at Columbus and the Division 11 headquarters in New Philadelphia made an official final inspection Tuesday afternoon on the recently-completed California Hollow - West End Freeway project, but there was no announcement of a prospective date for the opening.

The state officials were accompanied by representatives of the major contractors on the project, Chapin & Chapin, Inc., and Baker & Hickey, Inc., along with Safety - Service Director Robert Owen, City Engineer George Bloomgren and Street Supt. W. M. Laughlin.

Bloomgren said the state officials pointed out a few minor details on the job to be completed or corrected by the contractors.

The improvement will not be opened until directional signs and route markers are erected, a job that must await delivery of the signs. The freeway was dedicated Oct. 17, although the official completion date is set today.

Illegal Literature Draws Warning

Hancock County Prosecuting Atty. Floyd R. Tarr today issued a warning against circulation in the county of anonymous letters of circulars connected with Tuesday's general election.

"These anonymous publications," the prosecutor's office in Weirton said, "concern the impending election."

The prosecutor added that his office has been advised that anonymous letters or circulars have been published and might possibly be circulated in the county.

"Any person who publishes, issues or circulates or has anonymous material published, issued or circulated will be prosecuted," Atty. Tarr reported.

The penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000 or confinement in jail for not more than a year, he added.

Testimony began Monday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. Ronald D. Hathman of Campbell, who was found guilty last week by a jury, and requested probation, testified for the state.

The jury sworn in by Judge Sharp included Olive Kress, Gladays Rose, Nevada Laitsch and Blaine Barrett of East Liverpool; Margarite Graham, Genevieve C. 'Macing' Denied By Highway Aide

BEAVER — John Pashuta, acting chief steward of Local 1111, Beaver County Highway Workers, said Tuesday he had found no indication of macing of highway workers in Beaver County.

His statement was in answer to a charge by the former steward, Charles Diklich of Freedom, who was suspended by the international about two months ago.

Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom alleged that the State Highway employes in Beaver County have been maced for Democratic campaign funds.

He disclosed a signed statement by Diklich. Bloom said Diklich stated that the Beaver County highways superintendent had issued cards on which each employe was asked to specify the amount he wished to contribute to the party. The county division was reportedly acting on orders from Harrisburg.

A copy of Diklich's statement was sent to the Beaver County district attorney's office which is now waiting for Diklich to come forth with the evidence.

Four New York Papers Offer Wage Increases

NEW YORK (AP)—Four of the seven strike-threatened major newspapers in the city offered wage increases to news and commercial employes Tuesday and early today.

Officials of the New York Newspaper Guild, a unit of the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild, called the proposals inadequate and unacceptable.

Midnight tonight is the deadline set by the union for a strike against any or all of the seven newspapers.

The guild is seeking a number of benefits—such as increased job security—in addition to more money.

The guild seeks a general 10 per cent wage increase and a $200 top minimum weekly wage for the top salary category of experienced employes. It also seeks higher minimums in the lower brackets.

Top minimums on the newspapers now range from $162.25 to $168 a week.

The Judicial Ballot

For the first time in the history of the Ohio Supreme Court, a sitting judge of that court is challenging a sitting chief justice for the court's top position.

Judge Kingsley A. Taft, serving his 14th year on the court, is trying to unseat Carl V. Weygandt, rounding out his 30th year as chief justice.

This unprecedented contest has been aptly described as the "battle of the judicial giants."

IN A VERY REAL SENSE, it is unfortunate that two such able jurists should be pitted against each other.

Ohio needs the services of both, but only if Chief Justice Weygandt wins re-election will both remain on the court.

Judge Taft is in the second year of his third term and will remain on the court at least four more years regardless of the outcome of the head-on clash.

Chief Justice Weygandt, however, is not in that enviable position. Defeat for him would mean retirement from the court.

Mr. Weygandt has served with distinction as chief justice. He presides over the Supreme Court with wisdom, patience, tolerance and impartiality. He has won respect for and confidence in our judicial system.

While the chief justice, at 74, is still mentally alert and in apparent good health, age could be a factor in the race. He would be 80 at the completion of another term.

JUDGE TAFT is a keen student of the law and, at 58, has the vigor and vitality to serve many more useful years on the state's highest court, where he already has distinguished himself for his diligence and judgment.

While a majority of the members of the Ohio Bar Association casting ballots in a statewide poll have shown a preference for Chief Justice Weygandt, the vote was close enough to indicate a nip-and-tuck race is in prospect.

We refrain from choosing between them because we feel strongly that an endorsement for either would do an injustice to the other.

TWO OTHER Supreme Court races are on the Nov. 6 judicial ballot.

For the term beginning Jan. 1, 1963, Judge John M. Matthias, who has been a member of the court since 1954, is seeking re-election for his second full term. He is opposed by Common Pleas Judge James J. Mayer of Richland County.

Believing as we do that an incumbent who has served the high court ably should be re-elected, we endorse the candidacy of Judge Matthias.

For the term beginning Jan. 2, 1963, Paul M. Herbert of Columbus, one of Ohio's better-known trial lawyers and five times lieutenant governor, is opposed by Municipal Judge Richard T. Cole of Springfield.

While Mr. Herbert is making his first race for a judicial post, Judge Cole, who was once a city solicitor, has been on the bench since 1956.

Age may be a factor in this race, too, as Mr. Herbert is 73 and Mr. Cole only 41, although we feel that in this case, particularly, Mr. Herbert's extended legal experience better qualifies him for the high court.

The bar poll gave strong preferences to both Judge Matthias and Mr. Herbert.

Elliott For Senate

Voters from Columbiana and the three other counties which comprise the 20th-22nd District will have two well-qualified candidates from whom to choose when they cast their ballots for state senator Tuesday.

Seeking the post are Edmund A. Sargus of St. Clairsville, the incumbent, and Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers. Mr. Sargus is a Democrat and Mr. Elliott, a Republican.

Mr. Sargus, first elected in 1960, has served creditably in Columbus, having been voted one of the two outstanding freshmen senators of the 104th General Assembly.

It is our feeling, however, that this section of the county deserves to send one of its residents to the Senate for the first time in years.

It is our feeling also that James Rhodes, a Republican, will be elected governor of Ohio and that a Republican-dominated Senate would prove more effective in carrying out his program.

Mr. Elliott has been active in various Columbiana County civic enterprises and is well aware of this county's needs as well as the needs of the other counties which make up the district — Jefferson, Belmont and Harrison.

We recommend his election on Tuesday.

Re-Elect Wetzel

State Rep. Clarence L. (Dutch) Wetzel is seeking his seventh term in the Ohio House of Representatives in next Tuesday's general election.

The veteran Lisbon area legislator, a Republican, is being opposed by Atty. Lawrence W. Stacey of Columbiana, a Democrat, who is engaged in private law practice.

Mr. Wetzel has served Columbiana County in a satisfactory manner during his years at Columbus and holds several key committee posts, including chairmanship of the mines and resources committee and membership on the House finance committee.

The experience and seniority gained during his six previous terms weigh heavily in his favor in the choice of a legislator to represent the county at the state capitol.

The Review recommends that Mr. Wetzel be elected for another term.

One Way To Avoid Trouble

President Kennedy's "quarantine" of Cuba caused us to do a little reflecting.

It went back to John Foster Dulles and the 1960 presidential campaign when Democrats were howling about the Eisenhower administration's "brink of war" foreign policy.

How much closer to the "brink" can we get than the Cuban situation?

In a Life Magazine interview in January 1956, Secretary of State Dulles had said:

"If you cannot master it, you inevitably get into war. If you try to run away from it, if you are scared to go to the brink, you are lost."

Democrats howled about "brinksmanship." In April 1957 Secretary Dulles made a speech to the Associated Press meeting in New York about "dynamic peace" that agitated them even more. They rang all the changes on this in the 1960 campaign.

JOHN FOSTER DULLES was right. President Kennedy's "brinkmanship" in the Cuban situation saved the day.

We think most of the American people agreed with Mr. Dulles in 1956 and their point of view is only now coming into favor among disenchanted "liberals" who thought the late Franklin D. Roosevelt had "house-broken" Stalin and who had wanted to think until lately that Khrushchev was born with the proper instincts.

Communists will push the free world as far as they can without actually getting into war so long as we don't complain about being pushed.

It will be only to the extent that we push back that their expansionism will be contained. Communists are utterly realistic about these things.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and Secretary of State Dulles knew how Communist strategy worked. The Kennedy administration seems to have caught on too—belatedly.

If John Foster Dulles were making statements on this same subject today he could say what he said in 1956 and again in 1957 without raising a stir of dissent.

This time the whole country would say, "Amen." His clear-eyed, hard-headed view of foreign policy has been vindicated.

There is only one way to avoid trouble. Go more than half way to meet it.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

Among people I talk to there is this nutty paradox running through their remarks. They believe in the two-party system of government and despise partisan politics that keeps the two-party system in operaiton.

I can remember when housewives bought pumpkins, cut them up, boiled them into a mushy mess, added spice to cover up the disagreeable taste and made homegrown pies. Pumpkin pies are still made of pumpkins, but I doubt if many housewives start the process from scratch.

A White House picket finally revealed what long has been suspected — that many pickets go along for the walk. "It is fun; it is good exercise; who cares if we're wrong," read a sign carried by a female beatnick.

Like millions whose image of India goes back to Mahatma Gandhi, best publicized agitator of his day, thanks to the bleeding-heart U.S. press, I cannot conceive of India as a fighting nation, nor can I conceive of Indians conceiving this of themselves or their nation.

For those who wonder about the latest misadventures of our Rottwollie (she will be 18 months old this month) she has hidden a squeeze bottle of window cleaner, which she stole while my back was turned, and we're waiting for it to explode when she chews it to pieces. She then will be the cleanest Rottwollie in this part of the country.

For people wondering why a Congress dominated numerically by Democrats looked so bad in action it should be obvious that the death of Speaker Sam Rayburn and the switch to the vice presidency of Lyndon Johnson, former Senate majority leader, were like the Yankees losing Ford and Terry in the same season.

They tell me this story's old but it's good enough for repetition — about the three bears coming back from a walk in the woods, and papa bear, mama bear and baby bear each complaining because of an empty porridge bowl and just then grandmother bear sticks her head out the kitchen door and yells, "Squawk, squawk, squawk, I ain't served the porridge yet."

I will stop anything I'm doing to watch football on television. It is the perfect sport for this medium of communication — really the only one worth watching.

I like the idea of Rockefeller Public Service Awards to professional employes of government who have served with distinction. Five men were given $5,000 and a pat on the back at Princeton University: Lewellyn Thompson, Hugh Dryden, Reginald Conley, Morris Hansen and J. Stanley Baughman. All are key behind-scenes men in the federal government.

Cuba Decision Called Hollow Victory

By DAVID LAWRENCE

It's a hollow victory — if, indeed, it turns out to be a victory at all. It's Nikita Khrushchev who now is established as the man in charge of Cuba. It's he who is dealing for Cuba with this country and with the United Nations, and it is he who will argue whether certain weapons in Cuba are "defensive" or "offensive." It is the Soviet premier who shipped the missiles into Cuba in the first place to threaten the United States. Yet, when he promises to withdraw them, President Kennedy calls this a "statesmanlike decision."

David Lawrence

If a would-be murderer points a gun at you and then suddenly decides not to kill you, does he immediately become a "statesman"?

So far as the Monroe Doctrine and the traditions of this hemisphere are concerned, however, even as the President and Premier Khrushchev were exchanging subtly phrased notes about peace and the protection of Cuba against invasion, agents of the Soviet government operating from Cuba were engaged in dynamiting four electric power stations in Venezuela, and thus was sabotaged a substantial part of the oil production of that country. First reports said it will cost at least $1.1 million a day until repairs can be completed.

The United States government, moreover, has sacrificed an opportunity to liberate the Cuban people. The American quarantine or blockade of Cuban ports is to be dispensed with on the assurances of Mr. Khrushchev that his "officers" and "instructors," as he describes them, will change the missile bases so they will no longer be offensive.

A United Nations inspection team doubtless will take plenty of time to make sure it is distinguishing between the offensive and defensive character of any military projects already set up in Cuba by the Soviets.

THE PLAIN FACT is that Mr. Khrushchev has not agreed to get out of Cuba. The United States, on the other hand, has backed away from the Monroe Doctrine and has not insisted that all the Soviet arms be removed from Cuba. The latest letter from the Soviet premier implied that "defensive" arms supplied by the Soviets would remain in Cuba. Mr. Khrushchev wrote:

"I regard with respect and trust your statement put forward in your message of Oct. 27, 1962, that no attack will be made on Cuba, that no invasion will take place, not only by the U.S.A. but also by other countries of the Western Hemisphere, as your message pointed out. In view of this, the motives which prompted us to give aid of this nature to Cuba are no longer applicable . . .

"If we take practical steps, and announce the dismantling and evacuation of the said instruments from Cuba, then, in doing that, we wish at the same time to assure the Cuban peoples that we are not divesting ourselves of the responsibility of granting help to the Cuban people."

President Kennedy in his message of Saturday, Oct. 27 — of which Mr. Khrushchev took note in his reply — had offered this deal to the Soviet premier:

"1. You would agree to remove these weapons systems from Cuba under appropriate United Nations observation and supervision; and undertake, with suitable safeguards, to halt the further introduction of such weapons systems into Cuba.

"We, on our part, would agree—upon the establishment of adequate arrangements through the United Nations, to insure the carrying out and continuation of these commitments — (A) To remove promptly the quarantine measures now in effect and (B) To give assurances against an invasion of Cuba. I am confident that other nations of the Western Hemisphere would be prepared to do likewise."

WHO HAS come out with a net gain? The United States, in effect, has recognized the Soviet right to run Cuba and is not to challenge it by invading Cuba, as is required by an application of the Monroe Doctrine and as other American presidents in the past have interpreted it.

So Khrushchev stays in Cuba. He says in one of his two notes that he will defend Cuba and will interpret the actions of the United States from time to time in his own way.

Who built up the crisis? Not the United States, but the Soviet Union.

Who took control of Cuba within the last year? Not the United States, but the Soviet Union.

What has each side given up? The United States withdraws its fleet and abandons any thought at present of establishing by force the right of its citizens or those of other countries to regain their properties confiscated by Castro. The Soviet Union, with its "officers" and "instructors," keeps its foothold in Cuba where, at any moment, "defensive" airplanes can be launched with nuclear bombs that could be hidden inside the island.

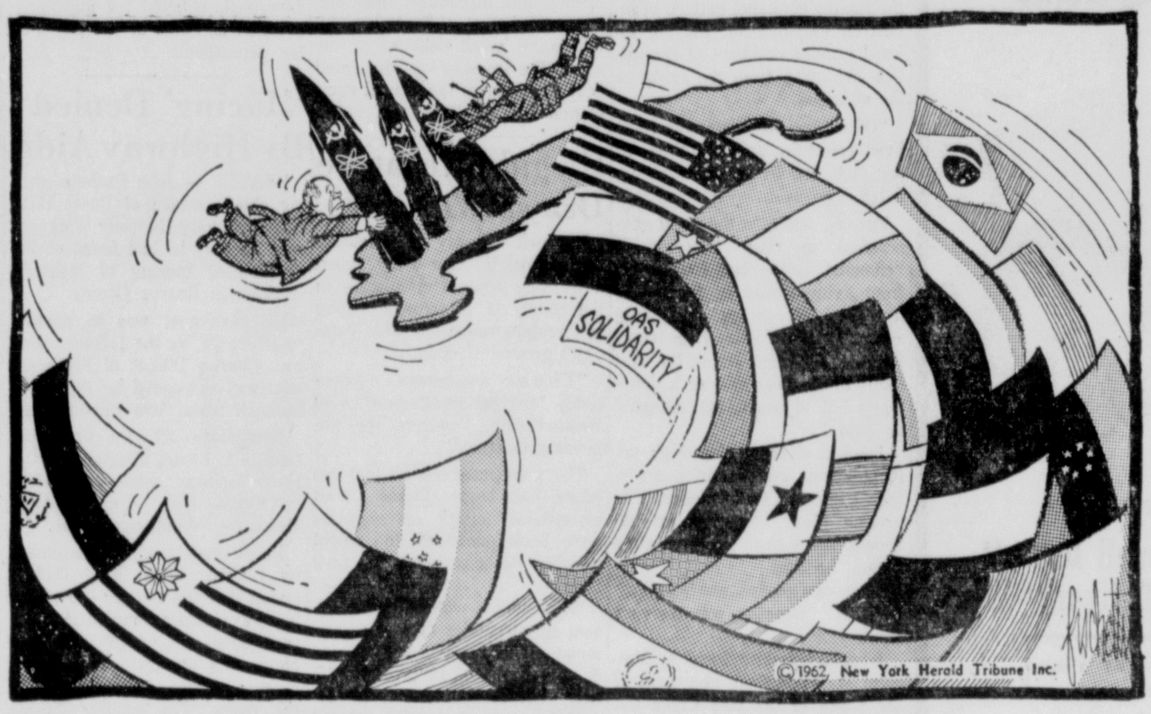
How can the United States be absolutely sure that what the Soviets call "defensive" supplies will not be suddenly used for "offensive" purposes?

So it's hard to tell as yet who has achieved a "victory" in the controversy over Cuba, which might have been averted if the invasion by the Cuban exiles had been given air cover by the administration here in April 1961.

NOW THE CUBAN exiles are checkmated. They will not only be opposed by the Castro regime—which continues to be aided by the Soviets — but by the United States, which has virtually pledged itself to see to it that all the countries of this hemisphere will refrain from any steps involving "invasion."

This is a broad enough pledge to stifle the efforts of any Cuban exiles to launch an invasion from any neighboring countries.

In fact, Mr. Khrushchev in his note of last Friday made clear that the pledge of "no invasion" means to him any operations "both from the territory of the United States and from the territory of other neighboring states of Cuba." It's a sad hour for the people of Cuba.



Rough Seas In The Western Hemisphere

Federal Controls Ready If War Strikes

By VICTOR RIESEL

We now are in Defcon Three. May we never get to Defcon One. If we do, the rockets and radiation will be pouring in—and out. And the government of these United States will be dispersed — operating from secret underground centrals, in caves, mountainsides and selected college grounds.

Victor Riesel

There are five Defcons — defense conditions. Today, at stage three, the government people are preparing quietly for anything that may come on the economic as well as the military front. Quietly, because it may not be necessary to move into Defcon Two.

The second stage is not so quiet. Then it will make no difference if the public does know of the swift shuttling back and forth between the White House, the executive bureaus and the hundreds of key offices from which will come orders for economic survival.

In Defcon Two, special cadres will be dispatched to the secret relocation centers.

IF THE SIGNAL comes from Defcon One, the vast executive units for running a wartime civilization will speed to those "safe" — and dispersed — headquarters. They will be linked by an intricate radiation-roof communications system.

Such a signal will come from the 400-man Office of Emergency Planning. It is the White House headquarters staff for economic and civilian coordination, directed by Ed McDermott.

And it has been planning. It works with, and is part of, a national economic council which parallels the National Security Council. This civilian security division has been meeting hours on end. It has many problems.

Mostly it has been discussing the "alternatives." Why alternatives? Because every one of the truly key figures in this "council" was told privately that the President meant what he said—even if it meant war.

So the alternatives involve: What shall be done to keep the economy as normal as possible if there is a long, intensified cold war; what shall be done if there is a limited war; and what if we must face a "post-attack reorganization."

WHAT WOULD happen on D-Minus plus one — the day after an enemy assault on our mainland. That's the extreme. Actually inwardly no one expects it to come. But it would be utterly stupid and suicidal not to act as if it may come.

In any of these emergencies, what happens to wages, salaries, prices, rents, credit, manpower, supplies, food. Who will control these?

Undoubtedly Secretary of Labor Wirtz will administer wages and salaries. There will be a freeze. This stabilization automatically falls to the Department of Labor because in its Wages and Hours Division it already has the complex apparatus for monitoring such matters. This would be the stabilization program.

Much of what happens depends on the negotiations in the U.N. and "when" we or our Latin allies invade Cuba. For even now, in the very highest government circles they no longer use the word "if." It is "when."

SHOULD THERE be delays in international action and counteraction, then special committees of management and labor men will be summoned to Washington. They have met only once—that was in April 1961, under Arthur Goldberg.

If another showdown comes, the President has his emergency powers under a 1950 act. But he would go to Congress for specific economic powers if we start moving into Defcon Two and we're faced with Defcon One.

May that decision never have to be made.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

We, the undersigned residents of the Fourth Ward in Wellsville, wish to express our disgust of a letter appearing in the East Liverpool Review, dated Oct. 25. Supposedly, it was written by Mr. Edward Broderick.

If this man knows, as he seems to want us to believe, so much about our councilman's record, we would like to refresh his memory on a few points concerning Mr. Stroble.

1. — Who led the fight to provide street lights and street markers for 18th Street Heights? He wanted to help open the area for future development.

2. — Who led the fight for proper stop signs at our intersections to prevent accidents?

3. — Who has fought for more stop lights and more patrolling of school zones and the slowing down of truck traffic to protect our children?

4. — Who has fought for better streets within our city? Ask around, Mr. Broderick, especially ask the residents who live on our dirt streets.

5. — Who has fought harder to improve and beautify our city, especially along Main St.?

6. — Who has continually fought to live within our budget and keep away from a city income tax? This is all on record, Mr. Broderick, if you wish to check.

7. — No one opposed the raise in gas rates more stubbornly then Mr. Stroble, feeling that our citizens living on a limited income could not afford to pay any more.

8. — Mr. Stroble feels that the proposed combination City Hall-Post Office would mean more taxes upon the heavily tax - burdened people of Wellsville. He has strongly opposed this issue from the start, even in the face of severe criticism and constant pressure from the opposite group.

We could continue on and on, but we feel by this time Mr. Broderick should begin to see how stupid his letter sounded to us and how completely his letter is lacking in actual facts.

If Mr. Broderick feels that he can better our councilman's record, we would like to ask him to quit the foolish criticism and to run for Council himself, in his own ward.

(The above letter is signed by Harry Hammond, Elmun L. Bemis, Glenn W. Clark, Martha Jane Clark, Clyde A. Powell, C. H. Carothers, Fred Meyer, John A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Salsbury, Charles E. Rodgers, Charleen Rodgers and Pete F. Ceneviva.)

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

This is in response to Mr. Myron Weis' letter in Saturday's Review.

Mr. Weis stated that his home is assessed at approximately $5,000 and that the taxes on that valuation for one year for the combination city-hall post office building would be $4.58.

Now, therefore, we feel that Mr. Weis has not bothered to multiply what $1.90 per $1,000 valuation times $5,000 worth of valuation would produce, or he doesn't understand what 1.9 mills mean.

1.9 mills is equal to $1.90 for each $1,000 valuation times $5,000 worth of valuation equals $9.50 per year.

Using Mr. Weis' own figures, the combination city-hall post office will cost Mr. Weis $9.50 for one year and for 20 years it will cost Mr. Weis $190. This is based on 1.9 mills as is stated on the sample ballot.

Mr. Weis stated that when he was president of Council he had to purchase a toilet seat. May we ask Mr. Weis if this is all he can boast of as an accomplishment of his term in office?

Mr. Weis stated that the city hall roof is in bad condition, which we doubt. And if that was the case, then why didn't Mr. Weis order the roof repaired when he was President of Council?

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Mrs. John Springer and Mrs. James Hall presented a vocal duet at a meeting of the Young Women's Missionary Society of the Wellsville United Presbyterian Church.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Meyer Feldman and Walter W. Wilson of East Liverpool enlisted in the Navy through the Pittsburgh recruiting station.

H. E. Dierker, treasurer of the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co., was elected to the board of directors of the East Liverpool Chamber of Commerce.

TEN YEARS AGO — Seaman Robert G. Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Allison, 307 Virginia Ave., returned from the Korean combat zone aboard the Cruiser Juneau.

John Rossi of New Cumberland was named president of the Glee Club at the College of Steubenville.

Jungle Obscurity

A jungle railroad in Brazil was hailed as one of the world's great wonders when it was hacked out by North Americans 50 years ago. Today, the line operates in casual obscurity.

The 228 miles of track were built to open a large part of Brazil's wild interior to the rubber trade. The road pierced dense jungle, traversed swamps and spanned turbulent streams to connect the Madeira and Mamore Rivers.

Men came from 30 countries to work on the project. Hundreds were to die from malaria and other fevers. Hostile Indians showered arrows on surveying parties. Heavy rains washed out miles of track, and vast columns of army ants devoured the wooden railroad ties.

After five rigorous years, the railroad was completed and the first train rattled over its entire length July 15, 1912. But the road had been finished too late. The South American rubber boom had collapsed under competition from Asian rubber. Other Bolivian products could pass more cheaply through the Panama Canal, which was just being finished.

Now the road carries nuts, hides, woods, and 4,000 tons of rubber a year to Porto Velho. It brings back food, petroleum products, and construction materials to peoples of the interior.

Controls Due On Vandalism

Providing extra protection against Halloween vandalism tonight, East Liverpool's two new police cruisers will be in service and extra officers will be assigned to duty, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet warned.

The mayor and Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi joined in asking parents to warn their children against acts of property destruction. Parents will be held responsible in cases where the culprits are nabbed, the chief said.

"We want the youngsters to have a good time in their 'trick or treat' rounds, but we request the parents to warn their children against needless property damage," Mayor Goodballet said.

When small children make "trick or treat" rounds, they should be accompanied by their parents or older brothers and sisters, the mayor said.

The mayor and the chief also reiterated an appeal issued Tuesday by Safety - Service Director Robert Owen, asking motorists to be particularly careful tonight because of the large numbers of children who will be on the streets for Halloween.

Parents should caution their children to be watchful against accidents, particularly in crossing streets, the officials said.

Disabled Voters Will Receive Aid From 2 Deputies

Two assistant clerks of the County Election Board will visit hospitals and nursing homes in Columbiana County today and Thursday to supervise balloting by disabled electors, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, said today.

"State law provides the board shall take such action because no notary or any other person except an Election Board clerk or assistant may assist disabled voters," O'Hanlon said. "Any notary who does assist a voter is violating the law and is subject to prosecution."

The assistant clerks will be of opposite political parties, O'Hanlon said. The board has received applications for disabled voters' ballots from Wellsville nursing homes and a few from East Liverpool and Salem hospitals, he said. There are no applications yet from nursing homes here or at Salem, although the deadline does not fall until 4 p. m. Thursday.

The assistant clerks will deliver the ballots to persons who have applied for them, then supervise the voting, offering assistance if it is required.

65 Attend Scout Halloween Party

About 65 attended the annual Halloween party of Boy Scout Troop 12 Monday night in the social rooms of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Dale Thornton, scoutmaster, and George Hill, assistant, were in charge of arrangements.

Costume prizes went to Rickey Bright, Donnie Hill, Martha Wakefield, Mike Baxter, Harry Brown and Jodell Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Beaver, Miss Hazel McShane, Mrs. Frances Thornton and Hill were judges.

Bob Gray, district executive, invited the troop to the First Church of Christ next Sunday night when 10 scouts will receive the "God And Country" awards.

Tom Nutter and Mike Baxter were received as new members. Refreshments were served by the social committee.

It's fun to bake an upsidedown cake with two varieties of fruit! You can combine pineapple rings and apricot halves from buffet-size (about 8 ounces) cans or make other combinations to suit yourself.

Follow New York Industrial Plan, Rhodes Suggests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — New York State held the line on taxes, yet accelerated its industrial growth the first five months of this year, says Republican gubernatorial candidate James A. Rhodes. He urges that Ohio take a leaf from the Empire State's book.

Rhodes credits the New York Industrial Development Authority for that state's comparative progress and says his plan, aimed at increasing industry and employment in Ohio, is patterned after it.

Rhodes quoted from the July 1962 issue of "Business in New York State":

"While 33 other states were revising their tax structures upwards, New York held the line and even continued to reduce, repeal or adjust taxes in several areas critical to economic growth."

He said New York gained 170 new industries the first five months of 1962, placing it first in the nation, with California second. He said Ohio, once second, now is third.

New York's employment, Rhodes said in a campaign release Tuesday, has reached an all-time high while Ohio employment is below the level of five years ago. He added that New York's economic growth rate is up 17 per cent from what it was in 1958, while Ohio's he said, is little more than one per cent.

PTA Masquerade Set

HAMMONDSVILLE — The annual Halloween masquerade party of the Parent - Teacher Association will begin at 7:30 Thursday night at the elementary school. Mrs. Helen Heiney is program chairman.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Briley Confident Despite Pollsters

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Marshall Briley, Republican candidate for U.S. Senate, says everyone is picking his opponent, Sen. Frank J. Lausche, to win, but the pollsters have been wrong before.

Briley, campaigning in Northern Ohio during the final week before the election, told campaign workers here Tuesday night:

"We must be realistic; the press as well as the senior senator (Lausche) feels my opponent has the election in the bag. I wish to point out polls were wrong in Ohio in 1960, polls were wrong in 1948 when they said Dewey would win.

"I think the soothsayers are wrong in 1962 when they pick my opponent as the victor."

Briley criticized Lausche for a statement he said the senator made in Congress Aug. 30, to the effect that he was "proud of the fact that he never asked for any special consideration for Ohio. He put himself on record as a person who did not recognize his duties to the people of Ohio.

"When I am elected to the U.S. Senate, I shall consider the people of Ohio as a lawyer does his client and will not be too proud to ask for every consideration based on the ability of Ohio labor and industry to perform most economically with the greatest ability for the benefit of the entire nation."

Hospital Unit Fund Cleared

Beaver County commissioners learned by telegram Tuesday of approval of a $346,184 grant, or 50 per cent of the cost, for a 100-bed wing to be constructed at the Beaver County Home and Hospital in Brighton Township.

The grant is being made under the Federal Accelerated Public Works program and is one of the first in the nation to be approved. Commissioners Eli Corak and James Ross and County Controller James Tress took the plans for the addition to Washington several weeks ago, anticipating passage of the Federal bill.

Bids will be asked as soon as verification is received. Work is expected to start by the first of the year. It must start within 120 days after approval.

The new wing will replace the Beaver County Hospital Home and Hospital Annex in Potter Township. The present laundry and kitchen facilities are adequate since the hospital, which has about 400 beds, was designed for 660 beds.

Mickey Fisher, Brandeis University's new athletic director, coached Tommy Davis, Los Angeles' great outfielder, in basketball at Boys High, Brooklyn.

Ailing Woman's Ambulance Run Aided By Radio

A Beech Bottom housewife monitoring calls on her husband's citizen's band radio helped obtain a police escort through Wheeling Tuesday for an ambulance of the Arner Funeral Home of Chester en route to a hospital with a Newell woman suffering from a heart condition.

Pete Arner, operator of the ambulance, radioed for a police escort in the south end of Weirton and the call was monitored by Mrs. Rhea Henthorn of Beech Bottom.

The ambulance was rushing Mrs. John McCullough, 42, of Newell to the Wheeling Hospital clinic because of a heart condition. During the trip, however, her condition apparently worsened.

Mrs. Henthorn passed along the need for a police escort to the Ohio County sheriff's office. A cruiser was dispatched to the Wheeling city limits to escort the ambulance to the Ohio Valley General Hospital.

Arner said the procedure of using a citizen's band radio in emergencies is considered normal practice.

Mrs. Henthorn's husband purchased a citizen's band radio last March and since then the entire family has taken an active part in montering the calls. Her husband, Delbert, is a radio and television repairman.

Mrs. McCullough was reported in "fair" condition Tuesday night.

DiSalle Proposes Legislative Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle proposed today a legislative program which he said would further improve the efficiency of state government and give local governments a chance to share in the savings.

His proposal came as he was in the windup of his four-year term and engaged in a struggle for re-election.

He advocated that local governments join the state in central purchasing through term contracts and save "as much as 17 per cent of supplies and equipment they have to purchase to run their operations."

If re-elected, he said, he would recommend that the next legislature provide for the Department of Finance to permit local agencies to use the state's standardized specifications and to join in volume contracts.

The governor called the program "Realities of government efficiency: A proposal for continued and improved efficiency in Ohio's state government."

Woman Hurt In Car Plunge

Two area women were injured seriously when their sedan plunged into a ditch on Route 66 south of Newell Tuesday night at 6:30, and a Chester man was hurt in a two-car crash an hour earlier, Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported.

Mrs. Birdie Irene Wright, 42, of 729 Lincoln Ave., the driver, and Mrs. Pearl Johnson, 64, of 562½ Carolina Ave., Chester, a passenger, were hurt when their car crashed into the ditch near the entrance to Globe Brick Co.

The sheriff's office said Mrs. Wright was headed north when her four-door sedan veered to the left, then right, and ended up in a ditch along the highway, demolishing the car.

Mrs. Wright received contusions and lacerations of the right eyebrow, abrasions of both legs, and a possible chest injury. She was in "fair" condition in City Hospital.

Mrs. Johnson received a fracture of the upper left arm, multiple fracture of the pelvis and abrasions and contusions of the face and legs. She was also in "fair" condition at the hospital.

Injured in the earlier accident at the fork of State Route 2 back of Chester was Timothy C. Clapperton, 64, of 536 Indiana Ave., Chester.

Clapperton was headed north on State Route 2 when his car was struck by the south - bound 1963 model sedan of Robert Edwin Rath, 47, of Toledo. Deputies said Rath failed to halt for a traffic sign at the east fork of State Route 2.

Clapperton was treated at City Hospital for two lacerations above his right eye. Five stitches were required to close the wounds, deputies said. Rath was charged with hazardous driving and fined $10 and costs at a hearing before Squire Eugene Allison of Chester.

Leyman, who had parked the stolen truck in the rear of the restaurant and was about to enter the eating place, had been spotted by Whinnery and Bradley only moments before Kirchgessner arrived.

Leyman made an attempt to return to the truck, but surrendered quietly when he saw police on both sides.

Mahoning Sheriff Ray T. Davis siad he is considering suspending the two deputies, who said they had thought it impossible for Leyman to escape as they had the door blocked.

Leyman had surrendered voluntarily to highway patrolmen of the Canfield Barracks last Wednesday after a five-hour search by a posse in southwest Mahoning county. He had been sought for parole violation and for questioning in the burglaries.

Leyman is also a suspect in the theft of some $500 worth of guns and equipment from Ivan's Clothing Exchange store at 1019 Liberty St. in Perry Township. Leyman's brother, Ted, 19, and a neighbor, James Baird, 18, both of Western Reserve Rd., also are implicated in this burglary, along with the two in Mahoning County.

Probe

charges of fraud were absolutely false."

Asked about reports from the governor's office that an index ledger is missing, Rhodes asserted the book simply has been misplaced, not lost.

"All records and vouchers, I might add, are in the office of the director of finance," Rhodes said, and added: "Not one record is missing from this office."

DiSalle had asserted former Rhodes employes had told him of kicking back, in cash, to "someone" in the auditor's office, the amounts they had charged on their expense accounts to local subdivisions for adding machine rental.

The one-page preliminary report signed by both the accounting firms of Ernst & Ernst, and Price Waterhouse & Co., said their examination covered the period beginning Jan. 1, 1953 and ended Sept. 30 of this year.

They said they examined ex - pense vouchers of examiners and employes in connection with adding machine purchase. The report added:

"Our examination of expense vouchers was limited in scope for the purpose of determining the extent of charges for rental and-or for rental - purchases of adding machines, and accordingly did not include a review of other items. Furthermore, in accordance with the authorization of the state records commission original expense reports and supporting documents of examiners and employes have been destroyed for periods ended prior to June 1956; however, with respect to this period, we exam - ined duplicates signed and ap - proved expense reports on a test basis.

"In our opinion the records of the office of the auditor of state of Ohio examined by us disclose that rental - purchase payments reported in the expense reports of examiners and employes were applied against the purchase price of adding machines (and several typewriters) which were delivered with a clear title to the state auditor's office.

"Furthermore, we found no evidence of fraudulent actions in connection with rental and-or rental purchase payments made during the period covered by our examination."

Tuesday, DiSalle tried to get a third investigation going into what he said were illegal practices by Rhodes' examiners. The state emergency board foiled the ef - forts.

The five-member group—three Republicans, two Democrats—did not approve DiSalle's request for $5,000 to hire a third firm to check out the fraud charges already being checked out by Ernst & Ernst and Price-Waterhouse Co.

The latter two since Monday have been conducting audits of the auditor's office. Their work was financed with $15,000 released by the Emergency Board last Friday.

DiSalle still had two unofficial investigators of his own looking over Rhodes' records — the two whose preliminary reports to him, he said, started the affair.

But the governor tried Tuesday to get a sanctioned out-of-state accounting firm into the act.

A DiSalle assistant, David Purkey, went before the Emergency Board and said, "The governor expressed some concern that an Ohio firm might be under tremendous pressure . . . to force a result." He pointed out that Ernst & Ernst and Price-Waterhouse are Ohio firms picked by Rhodes.

Finance Director James H. Maloon, presiding as chairman of the Emergency Board for the governor, voted in favor of funds for a third accounting firm. He was the only one.

Sen. William H. Deddens, R-Hamilton; Rep. Ralph Fisher, R-Wayne; Deputy Auditor C. W. Goble (for Rhodes), and Asst. Atty. Gen. William Fournier (for Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy) said they weren't ready to vote at the time—and didn't.

During a 1½ hour session, Deddens and Fisher insisted DiSalle could find a firm among the 2,391 certified public accountants in Ohio to do the job. Purkey argued the board had no authority to restrict eligibility to in-state firms.

Later, Deddens, Fisher and Goble issued a statement saying they would have approved the $5,000 if it were agreed to hire Ohioans.

Purkey had told the board "politics is not involved in this" when Deddens asked whether it might take another firm until after next Tuesday's election to make a report.

Rhodes has said he would stake his gubernatorial candidacy on the probe's outcome. He said again Tuesday he not only expected DiSalle's charges to be disproved, but also that state purchase of 25 adding machines from rentals enabled the supposedly soaked political subdivisions to save money.

Before Tuesday's emergency board session, Purkey went to Rhodes' office to complain that a disbursement journal for 1957-58, described as vital to the governor's investigation, was missing. Rhodes aides said it apparently was misplaced and promised to try to find it or corresponding material.

Police filed a reckless operation charge against her.

Miss Sullivan told officers she was driving west and rounding a turn, losing control of her car as she applied the brakes. The 1958 two-door sedan crossed the road and struck the utility pole on the berm on the east side, officers said.

No one was injured in two other mishaps late Tuesday afternoon.

A collision at Pennsylvania Ave. and Harker Ave. damaged a 1958 sedan driven by John Covert, 22, of 306 Gardendale Ave. and a 1960 sedan operated by Barbara Hartman, 27, of Weirton. Each driver blamed the other for the collision, officers said.

A mishap at 4:49 p. m. at Pennsylvania and Line Aves. was blamed on fogged windows that obscured the vision of one of the drivers.

It involved a 1962 sedan driven by John M. Bowers, 17, of 1818 Michigan Ave. and a 1955 sedan operated by Lee Roy Slappy, 18, of Midland Heights, Midland.

The East End youth said he was proceeding through an intersection with the traffic light in his favor when his car was hit by Slappy's. The Midland man said his windows were obscured by mist and he was unable to see Bowers' car.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make sure that the leftover paint in a can will remain fresh and will not harden?

A. This will not occur if the can is sealed airtight. To do this, replace the cover as tightly as you can, turn the can upside down momentarily, then right-side up again. Enough paint will flow around the edges of the cover to make it airtight, and the paint acts as a self-sealer.

Q. How can I remove black scuff marks, dabs of crayon, and pencil lines from a waxed floor?

A. Rub with a little self-polishing floor wax. The wax dissolves the marks and blends with the rest of the floor without leaving a bare spot. You can use this remover on asphalt and other tile floors, too.

Q. How can I avoid any danger of my freshly-polished silverware's discoloring?

A. With an application of white shellac. To remove the shellac, wipe the silverware with denatured alcohol, then wash in mild soap and water.

route through the Himalayas for Red Chinese armies.

The spokesman indicated the Communists might be trying to outflank the Indians at Walong.

In the only other fighting reported in the last 24 hours, the spokesman said Indian troops continued to shell the Chinese around Jang, five miles east of the captured monastery town of Towang on another route to the Assam plains.

The spokesman denied the Indians were attempting a limited offensive in the area, however.

Some 1,000 miles to the northwest in the other battle sector in Ladakh, there was no change in the situation, the spokesman said.

Asked whether the Soviet Union, an ally of Red China, is sending arms to India, the spokesman replied: "Certain equipment was ordered from that country and it is coming according to schedule."

He declined to discuss individual items such as the dozen jet fighters that India has ordered from the Soviet Union.

Since the Red Chinese launched their all-out offensive Oct. 20, the spokesman said, "We have been approaching all friendly countries from which we might get equipment and supplies."

Sources in Moscow have indicated the Soviets will not provide weapons for the Indians to fight the Red Chinese.

Shipments of British infantry weapons have been received here. Britain, the United States and Canada have promised to provide more weapons.

The beginning of what is expected to be large-scale American military shipments to India is expected to arrive here by the end of this week. No details are available here, however.

The Red Chinese, who apparently have paused in their offensive, were reported to have put a large labor corps at work in the Himalayas building roads to bring up reinforcements and supplies.

Although the government is counting on massive U.S. weapons assistance to blunt and throw back the Chinese drive, the Indian press and government radio have given little publicity to this.

Reflecting years of official Indian nonalignment, most papers chose to publish circumspect statements about assurances of American assistance, although they had available authoritative reports that the United States was asked by Prime Minister Nehru for arms, and has promised to rush them here.

The arrival of two planeloads of British arms was published on inside pages.

Besides automatic rifles and other infantry weapons, tanks and aircraft are expected to be written on the virtually blank checks which the United States and Britain have given India to order arms. Canada also has promised weapons.

The Indian army is counting on tanks to throw back the Red Chinese if they fight their way through the high mountain defenses to the lower foothills of the Himalayas in their drive toward the plains of Assam State.

Battles are now shaping up at 2½-mile-high Se Pass, 14 miles southeast of the Chinese-held monastery town of Towang, and at Walong in the mile-high Luthit River valley, 15 miles west of the Burma border.

The two main Chinese drives are from those areas toward what they claim to be the border with India at the edge of the thickly settled Assam plains.

At the other end of the battle line, in Ladakh 1,000 miles to the northwest, the Chinese already hold more than 12,000 square miles of what they claim is their territory.

Grandma's Cherry Pie Pleases The Palate

Everyone remembers a grandmother who was a whiz for her cherry pies. Those plump-red canned (or "store bought") red cherries added to her magic for producing delicious and wonderful kitchen creations.

This traditional recipe for "Grandma's Cherry Pie" recalls the pungent aroma of cinamon, nutmeg and lemons—and, of course, those cherries bubbling in their own juicy goodness.

½ cup sugar
3 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
4 cups thawed, drained, frozen pitted tart red cherries
1 cup cherry juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon peel
1 tablespoon butter
1 9-inch unbaked pastry shell
Pastry

Combine sugar, cornstarch, salt and spices. Add cherry juice. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is thick and clear. Add cherries, lemon peel and butter. Pour into unbaked pastry shell. Bake at 425 degrees F for 35 to 45 minutes. Cool. Extra pastry may be rolled and cut into ½-inch strips.

Moisten ends and fasten to make a strip about 24 inches long. Twist and coil on a baking sheet to make a spiral. Bake at 425 degrees F for 10 minutes. Cool and carefully arrange on top of baked pie.

15-Minute Meat Loaf Meal Is Aid To Cooks

Being economy minded doesn't always mean latching the purse strings. Often you must economize on time—especially when extra activities keep you on a tight schedule.

To stretch time quick meals are a plus factor. And, just for such circumstances here's a 15-Minute Meat Loaf Meal. Plump individual meat loaf patties are cooked quickly and deliciously with canned red kidney beans and condensed tomato soup. Tossed green salad, ready-to-bake biscuits, and ice cream for dessert complete this quick menu.

1 medium size onion
1 egg
1 lb. lean ground beef
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons shortening
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 cans (1 lb. each) red kidney beans

Chop onion finely. Beat egg. Add half of the onion, ground beef, bread crumbs and seasonings; mix. Shape into 4 patties. Brown patties quickly in hot shortening. Reduce heat. Add remaining onion. Pour tomato soup over patties. Add drained kidney beans; cover and heat. Four servings.

Cuban Crisis Leads To New Political Fuss

WASHINGTON (AP) — Political argument over the Cuban crisis flared up again today after a Democratic spokesman's suggestion that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower bow out of the campaign.

Indignant Republicans found no validity in a complaint by Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., that some of Eisenhower's barnstorming statements might be misleading because they indicated "there is room for criticism of the position taken by the President" in the Cuban missile threat.

At Gettysburg, Pa., a spokesman said Eisenhower was not available for comment.

Hartke told a news conference Tuesday he was speaking only for the Democratic senatorial campaign committee he heads and not for the White House when he suggested Eisenhower give serious consideration to cancelling future campaign appearances.

Hartke was vague about the specific Eisenhower statements to which he objected. He said that among other things the former Republican president had left "the clear implication that this crisis is no different from any other one."

He said this could be interpreted abroad as indicating that there was not solid support for President Kennedy's action in ordering the quarantine of offensive arms shipments and demanding the dismantling of missile bases.

David Anderson, 404 Midland Ave. charged with assault and battery, was ordered to pay costs and a $1 fine and to spend 23 months in jail, or he will be released in 30 days if he stays away from James L. Love of Midland.

Navy Blockade Fleet Pulled In Tighter

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has pulled its Cuban blockade fleet into a more compact patrol area, it was learned today.

Exact boundaries of the new picket line were not disclosed, but they were reported well inside the original patrol section which started as much as 600 or 700 miles off Cuba, extending northeast toward Bermuda and eastward of the Virgin Islands.

The sea blockade was in suspension again today, but the quarantine fleet of carriers, cruisers, destroyers and submarines was still on station.

U Thant, acting U.N. secretary-general, had asked that the U.S. blockade of offensive arms shipments to Cuba be lifted before he began discussions in Havana with Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

In announcing Monday night that the blockade would be suspended for two days beginning at dawn Tuesday, the White House did not say whether the quarantine would go back into effect after Thant leaves Havana.

reply to the European Common Market.

The Soviet government still struggles with agricultural and industrial problems.

For the Russians, all this tends to make Cuba part of the whole cold war picture. Failure of Khrushchev's plans there can embolden his critics who disagree with many other policies.

Red Chinese pressure on India's borders obviously has been in defiance of Khrushchev. It could even be read as a deliberate attempt to place him in an uncomfortable position. Should he side with Red China, he alienates India and the rest of the so-called nonaligned nations. If he sides with India, he widens the Communist schism.

Regarding West Berlin, Khrushchev's opposition inside and outside the Soviet Union conceivaby can bring much pressure on him to put up or shut up. He has promised for four years to sign a treaty with East Germany and to end Western Allied rights in the isolated city.

Khrushchev probably will carry the day in the Communist party Central Committee, but the pressures undoubtedly will remain. They probably can force him eventually to make some sort of move to justify his leadership.

That would set the world's nerves on edge once again.

In 1955, Denver Manager Ralph Houk sent pitcher Ralph Terry to Birmingham of the American Association "for more experience." Terry was only 19 at the time.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I am an Oriental antique dealer. Nearly everything in my shop is lacquer. I am willing to share the Chinese secret of cleaning and preserving lacquer.

Take three-fourths cup of water, put it in a pan, and bring it to a rolling boil. Put two tea bags in this. Put a tight lid on the pan and let the tea steep. Shake the pan around until the tea bag is well soaked. Leave the lid on the pan until the tea is cold.

Now . . . remove all of the waxes and oils from all of the lacquered pieces. Dry it thoroughly. Take a terry cloth rag and dip into this cold tea. Apply this briskly on all of the lacquered pieces.

Now, here's the secret! Do not wipe this off! The tea contains tannic acid. The tannic acid will return the lacquer to its original gloss!

Lacquer needs no waxes, oils, etc. In fact, it is an oriental opinion of one who deals in these lovely finished — whether new or old — that oils and waxes should never be applied to them.

W. S. WOO

All of the accumulated oils and waxes must be removed before this method brings results, so don't forget that! If your lacquer is an old antique . . . then it may have hundreds of coats of wax and polish on it.

Waxes and oils vary in their content. How you get them off is important. Ask your hardware store, department store or someone who knows and sells waxes and polishes. But don't use the tea method unless all waxes are removed.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: The woman who wrote in a few months ago and told us to buy a magnet to use in our kitchen was the sweetest friend we have in this world!

I find when it comes time to pay the milk bill, all I have to do is remove my magnet from the outside of the refrigerator, put my check under it, and wham, put it back on the box!

This also is good for notes — those you want your husband to see. For instance, if the yard needs to be cut . . . put a little note on that icebox. You know he is going in there for a little snack.

This saves lots of tempers, harsh words, and makes the world easier. Thanks to the reader who introduced the magnet world! That's the best dime ever spent in this home.

HAPPY

DEAR HELOISE: Did you ever iron a shirt? Guess you did and maybe still do. Well, shirts were ironed in my home, too, and if memory serves me, I was told it took 20 minutes.

If I ever get married I shall never let my wife iron a shirt. I tried it!

BACHELOR

DEAR HELOISE: My family is sick and tired of baloney and leftover roast beef sandwiches in their lunches.

I do wish that some woman who packs lunches would give us a few ideas for variety for those of us who are on tight budgets.

MARY SUMMERS

Anybody got any ideas? This is really a hot subject! You have no idea how many people take their lunches to work and school.

Let's get on the ball and share unique ideas. Write to Heloise in care of The Review.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: I wonder how often we women use a knife in the kitchen when a pair of kitchen shears or an old pair of scissor would work better? I especially like shears to cut up cold, leftover meat for casseroles, and to cut slices of bread into squares for crumbs. I have also used them to cut up snap beans and to dice celery. Next time, try shears. You can always go back to the knife.

Stage Equipment Installed

Bright Lights For Wellsville Play

Area summer stock actors are installing a new bank of stage lights at the Liberty Arts Theater in Wellsville for the opening of a second play Thursday night.

The lights were purchased with the proceeds raised from the first production the past summer.

Known as the Liberty Players, the groups consists of residents from the Tri-State area interested in acting.

Ed Welch, left, stage manager, and George Grafton, electrician, are shown installing the colored bulbs in the racks along the front of the stage. The new lights are aimed at an angle on the stage and can be raised or lowered from a control panel. The various colors also can be turned on and off as needed.

The group will present a three-act comedy, "The Curious Savage," Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Curtain time is at 8:30.

The play revolves around an elderly woman whose husband has died and left her $10 million. In the past she had always followed his wishes. Now she cuts loose and decides to go out on her own with the money. The catch is that her scheming family has other ideas, including some about her sanity.

Miss Joyce McLaughlin has the lead. She was a prompter in the first show. Others in the cast are Howard Guildoo, Robert Burch, Mrs. Mary Lou Cunningham, Miss Carole Ross, Miss Kay Hendershot, Harry Rose, Miss Linden MacLean, Nick Radeka, Glenn Dixon, Miss Shirley Andrews and Chris McNicol, a youngster.

The group did some work at the theater prior to the first production, but were limited for lack of funds. The money from this show was then used to purchase a second script and do more work, including installing the lights. Further proceeds will be used to purchase costumes, stage backdrops and props.

John Patrick, author of the current play, also wrote the screen plays for "Three Coins In a Fountain" and "The Teahouse of the August Moon."

U.S. Coast Guard Renting Lighthouse

PUT-IN-BAY, Ohio (AP)—Like to rent a good, used lighthouse?

The U.S. Coast Guard is putting its lighthouse on South Bass Island up for rent after switching to an automatic light today.

Paul F. Prochnow, 70, who has been occupying the two-story brick house since 1947, is retiring as lighthouse keeper and will go to Sandusky to live.

Attached to the house is a 46-foot tower with a revolving light. The light shows alternating white and red beams of 200,000 and 45,000 candlepower, respectively. Both lights are visible 15 miles away.

The house and two acres of land on which it is located will continue to be government property, although the 9th District Coast Guard headquarters at Cleveland said the light probably will be moved to a steel tower to be erected next year.

Crystal Beach Park On Lake Erie Sold

VERMILION, Ohio (AP)—Crystal Beach Park, a playground along the Lake Erie shore for more than 50 years, has been sold and most of its facilities are to be razed.

The Vermilion Crystal Development Co., which bought the property Tuesday, says its plans for the park are indefinite.

James Fisher, president, did say Crystal Beach will not be operated as an amusement park and that there is no intention of building homes there.

The roller coaster and other rides will be torn down, leaving only the dance hall on the 23-acre site.

The property was purchased from Mrs. James Ryan of Lorain and Mrs. James Calvert of Euclid, daughters of George H. Blanchat, who developed the park.

The park opened in 1907. From 1915 through the 1940s, the dance hall drew big crowds with big name bands.

Episcopalians Given Advice On Blue Laws

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Episcopalian clergy have urged church members to "weigh carefully" the pros and cons of the proposed Sunday closing amendment and then vote as their consciences dictate.

This advice was spread throughout the 48-county Diocese of Ohio Tuesday by the Department of Christian Social Relations in letters sent to the 114 parishes and missions. Dr. Stuart G. Cole, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Lakewood, is department chairman.

The statement says in part:

"Some members of the Episcopal Church favor, some disfavor, the proposed amendment, and valid considerations can be found to support each position."

The statement said it would not suggest that one position is more Christian than the other.

JOHN J. CARRIGG

Republican Candidate for Congress

18th District

VOTE FOR HIM---HE WILL WORK FOR YOU

I BELIEVE—the individual is pre-eminent and that the government's obligation is to protect the rights of the individual.

I BELIEVE—the state derives its authority from the people and that it should respond to their will.

I BELIEVE—that government should set minimum living standards and should help those who cannot help themselves; but,

I BELIEVE people should, first, try to do for themselves.

I BELIEVE—in a free economy, with limited government controls; that destroying an employer also destroys the wage earner. History proves that free men, exercising individual initiative, bear greatest fruits for all society. Because of this conviction,

I BELIEVE—economic and political freedom are inseparable and that curtailment of one will destroy both. Hence, I subscribe to the Jeffersonian pledge of " . . . eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man."

Versatile Eggplant Is Easy And Economic

Eggplant, an Italian favorite for centuries, is suitable for a variety of interesting preparations at minimum cost. One particularly good version is "Oven Crisped Eggplant" — segments of the vegetable are dipped into egg. then rolled in a mixture of finely crushed crisp saltine crackers, oregano, paprika, and salt, then drizzled with melted butter and baked until crisp, tender and oh, so delicious.

Use as a vegetable at dinner or serve with bacon curls as the main dish for lunch. Make it soon, this easy way:

½ cup very fine cracker crumbs (10 doubles)
¼ teaspoon rubbed oregano
½ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon salt.
1 egg
1 tablespoon water
2 small eggplants, about 1 pound each

Dip eggplant pieces into beaten egg and then into crumb mixture. Let stand at least 30 minutes to set crumb coating. Place, peeled side down, in shallow baking pan. Drizzle with melted butter. Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees F, for about 20 minutes or until crisp on the outside and tender on the inside. Yield: 6 servings.

Assailant Hurts Man At Tavern; Wife Stricken Ill

A 55-year-old LaCroft man was treated at City Hospital Tuesday night for a laceration over the left eye he said was suffered when struck by an unknown assailant while in a tavern and a short time later his wife was taken to the hospital for examination when she was stricken ill at police headquarters.

It all begin about 9 p. m. when Mrs. Opal Shaw, 54, of 3rd Ave. walked into headquarters and told police her husband had been struck over the eye while in the Buckeye Tavern on Dresden Ave., police said. Taken to the hospital in a cruiser, he was released after treatment.

Mrs. Shaw remained at headquarters after the incident. An officer telephoned her daughter to come to City Hall for the mother, police said.

While Mrs. Shaw was waiting in an adjoining office, a policeman heard her scream. Investigating, he found the woman unconscious on the floor. She also was taken to the hospital for examination, but no injuries were found, police said.

7 Sons, All Tech Graduates

Mother Named Honorary Georgia Tech Graduate

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—A mother has been named an honorary graduate at Georgia Tech without attending a single class at the engineering school.

Elizabeth B. Ziegler earned the distinction as the mother of seven Tech graduates, all good students and now successful in their chosen fields.

In addition, her first grandson received his degree last year. With 22 more grandchildren already around, she could be eligible in time for some kind of special grandmother prize.

Mrs. Ziegler, a native of Stuttgart, Germany, was honored during a special ceremony in the presence of her seven sons, Tech officials announced Tuesday. It was the first time the Zieglers had all been together in eight years.

Except for the years of World War II, she had a son at Tech every year from 1927 until 1950 when the youngest was graduated.

"At one time we had three sons in Tech during the depression," she recalled. "That was the hardest time."

Her husband died in 1947 while two of the boys were students.

A daughter was graduated from nearby Agnes Scott College and now is Mrs. Clyde Dunn, wife of a missionary in Formosa.

The Zieglers arrived in this country in 1908 and settled in suburban College Park.

The sons:

Dr. Waldemar T. Ziegler, regents professor of chemical engineering, Georgia Tech; Carl W., owner of a laundry and cleaning business, Weatherford, Tex.; W. Fred, superintendent at Swift Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ga.; Walter H., senior test engineer, Wright Aeronautical Corp., Woodbridge, N.J.; William R., owner and president, and Frank R., vice president, Cornwell Tool Co., Atlanta; and John M., sales engineer, Trane Co., Richmond, Va.

Chosen As Coroner

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Gus S. Shaheen of Canton has been chosen Stark County coroner to complete the unexpired term of the late Dr. E. B. Mozes. Dr. Mozes had been coroner 10 years, but his illness had prevented him from serving during the last two years. The unexpired term runs until Dec. 31, 1964.

DiSalle Proposes Better Schools, Salary Boosts

CLEVELAND (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle traversed the city Tuesday night in quest of votes in this normally Democratic stronghold.

Arriving here after campaigning for re-election all day in Akron, DiSalle went to a reception in suburban Bratenahl where an estimated 100 persons turned out to greet him.

In a speech at Wylie Junior High School in University Heights, DiSalle called from better pay for teachers and a general improvement of the school system at all levels. He said Ohio needs to augment its facilities for schools on the graduate level to keep pace with the emphasis on industrialization.

At a meeting in Lakewood City Hall, DiSalle said there was a need for integrity in public office. He said evidence regarding his $54,000 question thrust at his opponent, James A. Rhodes, had been shoved aside.

This refers to charges made by the governor that Rhodes made personal use of campaign funds.

The governor said if he had acted in the manner that Rhodes had, there would have been a great din by the newspapers asking that he be impeached.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last night while walking down the street my wife and I saw a group of teenagers appear out of nowhere and suddenly attack another youth. They beat and kicked him unmercifully. This was done without provocation as nearly as we could determine.

I wanted to go to the assistance of the victim but my wife hung on to my arms and pleaded with me to stay out of it. In a few minutes the police arrived. Now I'm not certain I did the right thing. Perhaps I should have broken away from my wife and at least attempted to help the boy.

My wife insists I should not have become involved. She claims a man's first duty is to his wife and family. If I had become seriously injured or crippled in that fight, she pointed out, it would have produced real problems for her and the children.

We both agree there is a question of morality involved. We would like your opinion.—DOBBS FERRY, N.Y.

Dear Dobbs Ferry: Since Cain slew Abel, man has been faced with this ethical dilemma. It boils down to the simple proposition: Should I volunteer to help my brother at the risk of endangering myself?

I say yes. This is the fundamental concept of brotherly love. Man cannot safely ignore the indignities and injustices about him for the sake of saving his own skin.

Every day each of us faces risks involved in the daily business of living. Even the lowly turtle must stick out his neck if he is to make progress.

Forgetful Borrower

Dear Ann: My fiance is wonderful but he has a bad habit and I don't know how to cure him. He borrows $10s and $20s and forgets to pay me back. I'm a nut when it comes to details and I keep track of everything. He owes me $140.

It's not the money I care about, Ann, it's the idea that he doesn't see anything wrong in forgetting to pay his debts. I'm sure if he does this with me he must do it with others. This is bad for a person's credit and it also hurts his reputation. He makes good money but he doesn't know where it goes. How can I help? —MOLLIE.

Dear Mollie: If you don't cure him before marriage the problem will be an active volcano after marriage — erupting periodically and causing serious trouble.

Ask your fiance to give you his check and suggest he live on an allowance. (When money disappears into thin air it means there is no budgeting and borrowing is inevitable.)

Next, ask for a list of his debts and start to pay them. You sound like the best thing that ever happened to him. I hope he appreciates you, Doll.

First And Last

Dear Ann: I'm an adult who should know the answer to this simple question. (It's so simple I'm ashamed to ask anyone for fear they will think I have flipped.)

Is there a rule of etiquette regarding who speaks first — the man or the woman? A friend of mine insists that the man should speak first. She says this rule goes back to mid-Victorian days when women were supposed to be shy and retiring.

Another friend says the woman speaks first because she should have the prerogative to ignore a man if she doesn't want to recognize him. What about this? — JUANITA.

Dear Juanita: According to the etiquette book, the woman should speak first, but this is one of those fine points which mean little. When friends meet, the one who recognizes the other first usually speaks first—and this is as it should be.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Father Of 3 Charged In 5 Bank Thefts

CINCINNATI (AP)—A 26-year-old Milford drummer faced arraignment on five bank robbery charges today as the result of his taste for red sports cars.

FBI agents arrested Thomas J. Miller, father of three children, Tuesday and charged him with robbing the First National Bank at Elmwood Place of $6,500 last Friday. They said his six robberies netted him more than $14,000.

Ed Mason, special agent in charge of the Cincinnati FBI office, said Miller's arrest cleared up a wave of robberies in the greater Cincinnati area. He said agents recovered a pistol and $5,100 in cash and checks at Miller's house.

Mason said a radio salesman, Edward R. Brueggemeyer, parked his car in front of the Elmwood Place Bank at the time of the robbery. He later told police that as he was taking his briefcase from the car, he saw a man jump into a red sports car and take off.

Brueggemeyer could not remember the make of the car right away, but it came back to him later. It was a Triumph.

FBI agents then compiled a list of persons in this area who recently bought such cars and visited every one of them personally. Tuesday their search ended with Miller's arrest.

The FBI said Miller also robbed $1,830 from the Fifth-Third Union Trust Co. branch at Norwood Sept. 26 and took $5,100 at gunpoint from the Central Trust Co. branch at Mariemont July 31. Hold-ups at the Economy Savings and Loan Co., Loveland, July 20; at the Evanston Building and Loan Co., Silverton, and the Economy Savings and Loan Co. branch at the Tri-County Shopping Center Jan. 11 netted him $200, $444 and $285 respectively, agents said.

Chief Charles Fritz of Norwood police said Miller admitted the robberies. He was held in lieu of $15,000 bond.

Evangelical U.B. Meeting Waits Committee's Report

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) —Reports from its Committee on Christian Social Action come before the 40th General Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church today — the last full day of business session.

The committee report covers recommendations for the denomination's stand on such items as racial matters, nuclear testing, divorce and capital punishment.

Delegates Tuesday night approved a plan for the reorganization of four European conferences which cover 77,000 members. It includes creation of a church construction fund, pension fund and a student exchange. Responsibility for these activities now will be vested in the central European conference based at Stuttgart, Germany.

Delegates from Canada received permission to establish a home for senior EUB members in Waterloo, Ont. The denomination's senior citizens home at Lewisburg, Pa., and one at Newton, Kan., were authorized to expand their facilities.

The general conference also approved establishment of an EUB home for the aged in eastern Pennsylvania over the next four years.

The confernce also approved including in Sunday school lesson material the text of the King James Bible version as well as that of the revised Standard Version.

Pennsy Official Urges No Quick Stock Disposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission has been urged not to order any quick disposal by the Pennsylvania Railroad of its stock in the Norfolk & Western Railway.

Pennsylvania officials previously have said they are willing to get rid of the 3 million shares of N&W stock "in an orderly manner." But David C. Bevan, Pennsy finance director, told two ICC examiners Tuesday that a too-quick disposal might severely damage his firm's working capital position.

The examiners are hearing arguments on the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central Railroads. The N&W itself is involved in a proposed merger with the Wabash and Nickel Plate lines.

Bevan said the Pennsy would be "satisfied" with a voting trust under which it would continue to receive dividend income but would have no voice in N&W affairs. It now has 32 per cent of the N&W stock voting rights.

Balloon Mishap Fatal

CINCINNATI (AP) — A 4-year-old girl was killed Tuesday while trying to blow up a rubber balloon. Police said the balloon exploded and a piece of rubber lodged in Trissa Hockemeyer's throat. Efforts to remove it failed and she was dead on arrival at General Hospital.

Missing Witness' Secretary Called In Liquor Probe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A grand jury investigating charges of influence peddling in Ohio's liquor business called for testimony today from Miss Wilma Bates of Chicago, secretary of the missing star witness.

Adrian B. Fink Jr., special counsel for Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy, said other witnesses would be a liquor department employe; Jack Cowie, Columbus Dispatch reporter, and officials of a Dayton Bank.

The grand jury begins its third week of investigation into claims of Joseph H. Makler, missing Chicago distiller, who claims he was obliged to pay to get his whisky listed for sales in state liquor stores.

Fink said officials still are trying to locate Makler for testimony before the grand jury.

Called for testimony Thursday are Paul Heil of Akron, former representative of Makler's company and another liquor department employe.

Fink said the grand jury then will adjourn until Nov. 13 when representatives of a Boston Distilling company are scheduled to testify.

Dear friends,

The continuing round of baptisms, religious classes, weddings, sick calls, personal counseling, funerals, place a heavy burden on our clergymen. We often wonder how they bear it so graciously.

Although they have great inner purpose to sustain them, let us remember that clergymen are also human—they appreciate an expression of gratitude even as you and I.

Respectfully,

Richard C. Martin

High Court Turns Down Toledo Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court refused today to review lower court decisions in a suit against Toledo patrolman Daniel Kasza who fatally shot a man suspected of stealing a hearse.

The victim, William L. Oliver, 27, died May 30, 1959, of bullet wounds received while allegedly fleeing from the vehicle reported stolen while parked at the rear of 1002 Dorr St.

Andrew Lee's wife, Birdell, said she parked her husband's hearse while visiting Angler's bar and that Oliver earlier had asked to borrow the vehicle but was refused.

Common Pleas Court held for Kasza but an appellate court reversed and returned the case for further proceedings.

In other actions, the Supreme Court:

Let stand the reversal of a $6,000 judgment to Mrs. Elaine N. Vrabel, 315 Overlook Blvd., Struthers, for a broken leg received in 1958 when she slipped on a piece of paper and fell in an A & P store on Fifth Ave., in the Youngstown suburb. Mahoning County Common Pleas Court held for Mrs. Vrabel, wife of Joseph Vrabel, but an appellate court reversed.

Agreed to review refusal of lower courts in Sandusky County to prevent the annexation of 243 acres adjacent to the northwest corporation limits of Fremont. Ernest S. Dabkowski and others sought an injunction.

John Tyler (1790-1862), an ex-President, served in the Confederate States Congress.

Becky Koping, left, and Linda Baker share the leads in the three-act mystery comedy directed by George L. LaNeve. Simmons plays the role of a New York newsman who overhears a murder plot and the action is centered in a hotel bookshop. The high school band will present selections at 7:40 and the choir will sing at intermission.

2,500 Attend Music Fete Of City Schools

The "Fall Festival of Music" held Tuesday evening at the Memorial Auditorium, in connection with the observance of American Education Week, was attended by an overflow crowd of 2,500, including the participating students.

It was one of the largest performances ever presented, including students from the elementary, junior high and senior high schools.

Participating schools included East Liverpool High, East Junior High, Westgate Junior High, Garfield, Glenmoor, Horace Mann, Klondyke, LaCroft, Lincoln, McKinley, Neville, Pleasant Heights, Westgate and Taft.

The festival chorus, under the direction of Miss Arletta Helfrich, director of vocal music, climaxed the program with "Jacobs Ladder" (arr. Wilson).

The High School varsity band, under the direction of Vincent Maola, supervisor of instrumental music, accompanied the festival chorus with the number, "Battle Hymn of the Republic" (arr. Ringwald), to close the event.

Paul Blair, assistant superintendent, extended the welcome in the absence of Supt. Ralph Betts.

Miss Patsy Seibert, president of the Girls Choir of the high school, presented Miss Helfrich with a corsage on behalf of the choir.

Wellsville Levy Needs Explained For Kiwanians

Details of the proposed 5 - mill school levy were presented by Supt. Lowell Myers at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at the Hotel Wilk.

Myers said the taxes on typical real estate appraised for tax purposes at $3,000 will be $15 additional per year if the levy is adopted.

He said the levy will furnish an anticipated $52,800. This will provide for full-time guidance counselors for both the junior and senior high schools as required by state law. The funds will not be used to increase the salaries of administrators, he commented.

Myers also pointed out the additional money would allow the system to compete more realistically for teachers, although it will not bring up the pay scale to equal that of East Liverpool or Toronto.

He said an additional $83,000 a year would be required to equal the two districts.

Funds from Wellsville taxes provide only 32 per cent of that spent for the schools, with the remainder coming from state and federal sources.

Myers termed the levy an "investment in our youth." Seventeen were present.

Richard Grills, president, conducted business. The Board of Directors will meet at noon Friday.

The board went on record last week favoring the new school levy.

West Virginia's Jobless Show September Drop

CHARLESTON (AP) — Unemployment continued to decline in West Virginia last month but the state's total civilian labor force also decreased, the Employment Security Department reported today.

At mid-September, there were 57,700 jobless in the state, a drop of 3,500 from mid-August and 8,200 below a year ago. The September unemployment rate was 9.7 per cent of the labor force.

The DES said the civilian labor force last month numbered 591,700, or 4,500 under mid-August and 23,000 less than last year's estimate.

The total employed declined to 534,500, a drop of 500 since August and 14,400 lower than September, 1961.

Durable goods industries reported the heaviest cutback in employment as work forces were reduced from 72,800 in August to 71,600 at mid-September, the DES said. The 12 month decline was 1,900.

N. Cumberland, In Another Winning Year, Seeks 7th

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Rose, Burskey Top Scorers

Busy John Kuzio, who picked his hometown to find success in the coaching field, sends his red-hot New Cumberland Blue Raiders into a Homecoming fray this weekend in a feature of the district card.

New Cumberland guns for its seventh victory of the season against dangerous Jefferson Union. The Blue Raiders have won five in a row, the last two by lopsided scores.

The 42-year-old Kuzio, wrapping up another winning season, considers the invaders from Jefferson County highly-dangerous. "But I think we'll give them a real good ball game," the Blue Raiders skipper declares. He coaches three major sports.

NO STRANGER to scholastic football· Kuzio may be headed for bigger things in the coaching game with the county school system moving towards consolidation. He served as an assistant to Charles Miller for 10 seasons before becoming head coach in 1959-60.

The Blue Raiders finished 4-6 in the University of Pittsburgh graduate's first year at the helm. Last year, they won seven and lost only two. Currently, the Blue-Raiders are 6-2 and are assured of another winning campaign with only two games left.

Kuzio's front wall, comprised of mostly sophomores and juniors, has blanked only one opponent. But senior halfbacks Jim Burskey and juniors Allen Pettit and Ed Wudarsky have been giving the opposition fits with their running performances.

BURSKEY has scored a dozen touchdowns — second best mark in the district — and Pettit isn't far behind with 52 points. Wudarsky tallied three times in last week's game with Mt. Pleasant, won by Kuzio's charges, 43-20.

Kickoff is 7:30 Friday night for the New Cumberland-JU number, but activities will commence at 7:15 with the introduction of squadmen and their parents.

Elsewhere, three big questions await answers on the district scene as football heads into its final two weeks.

Do East Liverpool's hapless Potters have enough left to upset arch-rival Salem; can Wellsville continue unbeaten in the Buckeye Border Conference; and will slumping Beaver Local check into the winner's circle again after a three-weeks absence?

THE POTTERS (1-6) could remove some of the gloom by upsetting their county rivals Friday night at Salem. Salem, a tough opponent each year, rates a favorite by virtue of a 5-3 record but the Quakers have lost three straight.

Coach Ken Woods' Wellsville Tigers battle Springfield in an important Buckeye Border Conference game and could move to a 3-0 record in loop play with a victory. Each loop entry but Wellsville has lost at least one game.

Wellsville's victories have been over strong Toronto, 28-8, and Jefferson Union, 34-20. With fullback Leo Pearson, halfback Alvin Thompson and quarterback Jim Reed fit and ready again after injuries, the Tigers may be on the prowl for the new league's title. However, center Jack Cataldo is still ailing.

BEAVER Local fans may be asking what happen following the sudden collapse of the Beavers as a power. Coach Jack O'Rourke's Beavers won their first five games, then lost to Northwestern, 22-20, on Oct. 12. Since then, the Beavers have been victims of Carrollton, 6-0, and West Branch, 28-6.

Beaver Local faces another strong foe this Friday in entertaining Toronto.

Tri - County League followers turn their attention to Louisville Friday night where East Palestine will attempt to upset the loop leaders. Unbeaten Louisville is a big favorite and could clinch the title by beating the Bulldogs this week and Minerva the following Friday.

ALSO IN action are Columbiana at Lisbon and Sebring at Leetonia. Columbiana saw its unbeaten record ruined by Louisville last week, 20-8, and has only a slim chance of sharing this year's title.

Two other Friday games find Salineville (3-4-1) at Chester (3-5) and Freedom at Midland (4-4).

On Saturday, Crestview hosts Greenford and United visits Springfield for afternoon games.

Meanwhile, the district scoring race tightened a bit after last week's action which found New Cumberland's Jim Burskey cutting into the lead held by Lisbon's Dave Rose.

Rose got six points in a loss to Leetonia, while Burskey tallied twice. Rose leads by a mere 10 points with each player having two games left to improve his production.

Stanton Local's hard - driving fullback John Pearson moved into the list of top scorers for the first time this season with three touchdowns against Brilliant.

Wildcats' Tackle Named Lineman Of Week By AP

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Szczecko, Northwestern's 235-pound sophomore tackle, was named the college football lineman of the week by The Associated Press today.

It was Big Joe's sparking play up front that played a major role in Northwestern's 35-6 victory over Notre Dame last week, a triumph that lifted the Wildcats into the No. 1 national ranking in this week's AP poll.

Szczecko's jarring tackle of Ed Rutkowski on the first running play of the game made the Notre Dame back fumble. Larry Benz recovered for Northwestern on the Irish 29—and eight plays later the Wildcats had their first touchdown.

Under Northwestern's lineman rating system, Big Joe was tops. He was given 79 per cent on his offensive assignments on running plays and 84 per cent on his blocking for passes.

High up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters were Frank Patitucci, Stanford end; Ron Snidow, Oregon tackle and Billy Joe Armstrong, Ohio State center.

Patitucci, a 213-pound junior, started Stanford on the way to its upset 17-7 victory over UCLA by grabbling a fumble and running 82 yards for a touchdown. His smashing in tactics made him a standout on defense.

Snidow, a 235-pounder, made 11 tackles, eight of them unassisted as Oregon tied Washington 21-21. In addition, his punting helped keep the Huskies backed up in their own territory. Two of his kicks went out of bounds inside the 5.

As for Armstrong, Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, showered superlatives on his 189-pound, 5-foot-11 senior snapperbacker after the Buckeyes' 14-7 victory over Wisconsin.

"Billy Joe is the best all-around player on our squad," Hayes said. "He's the best I've had here in 12 years. He has been tops for four years in grades, attitude, behavior and playing ability."

Dick Tiger Selected As 'Fighter Of Month'

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Tiger of Nigeria, newly crowned middleweight champion of the World Boxing Association, today was named "Fighter of the Month" by Ring Magazine.

Ring, however, rates Paul Pender of Brookline, Mass., as the middleweight champ, placing Tiger in the No. 1 contender position, followed by Gene Fullmer, the West Jordan, Utah, battler dethroned by Tiger.

There were no changes in the heavyweight division, ruled by Sonny Liston, but Doug Jones advanced one step to third in the light heavy class following Eddie Cotton's defeat by Mauro Mina of Peru, the No. 2 contender to Harold Johnson.

City's Jr. High Rivals To Clash

The seventh annual East-West battle involving the city's two junior high school will unfold Thursday afternoon at 4:30 at Patterson Field.

Going into Thursday's game Westgate holds a 4-2 edge in six previous games, but East Junior won last year's contest by an 8-0 margin when Mike Snowden, now a member of the Potter varsity, crashed over with only four seconds remaining in the game to nip its rival from the West. The other East victory came in 1959 by a 20-0 shutout.

In the series between the two schools most of the games have been tight with the exception of the 1960 tilt which Westgate ran away with by a 44-16 margin or the 1959 game when East won by the 2-0 margin.

Coach Larry Foltz, in his first year as head coach at Westgate has watched his team win three games while losing two this season.

At East Junior, where Paul Barbuto is also in his first season, the Panthers have compiled a 2-3 mark.

Several NCAA Schools Will Get Probation

NEW YORK (AP)—The policy-directing council of the National Collegiate Athletic Association winds up its annual fall meeting today with probationary action against several member schools expected.

At least two and possibly three cases of probationary action were reportedly scheduled by the council, which Tuesday night restored the University of Kansas and East Tennessees State College to full rights and privileges.

Kansas had been on probation for two years following violations of NCAA rules involving excessive entertainment of football star Bert Coan and a gift of an automobile worth some $1,500 to former Jayhawks' basketball All - America Wilt Chamberlain.

The one-year probationary period of East Tennessee State for violations of basketball recruiting and tryouts also was terminated.

Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, emphasized in announcing the termination of the probationary periods for Kansas and East Tennessee State that the report of the committee on infractions had not been completed.

When a fisherman catches any fish larger than the official record it is quite an achievement. But when a fisherman breaks the official record by catching two fish larger than the official record, that's something you don't hear about very often.

The official record for a black crappie stood at 2 pounds, 2 ounces, measuring 16 inches in length, until Wm. W. Prudner of 713 Sunset Dr., Lisbon, landed two blacks, one measuring 16¾ inches and weighing 2 pounds, 8 ounces and the other 17¾ inches, weighing 2 pounds, 12 ounces. Both fish were taken at the Ernest Tritton farm pond off Rt. 172, west of Lisbon, last May 16. They now are in the deep freeze at the Tritton home, although the insides have been removed. I learned about this just recently.

A WEDGE of 13 Canada geese was circuling Lake Guilford Saturday preparing to land when two large transport planes, flying very low, passed over the lake. The geese headed east. At least a few of us got to see them and they were honking away with that spine-tingling sound that means one thing, winter is on the way.

Melvin Nulf, 528 Fairfield Ave., Columbiana, has been teaching hunter safety and now is ready to put another class through the paces. Future hunters and the parents of future hunters should take notice.

The first good grouse hunting weather occurred last Saturday, with a good tracking snow in the hilly sections.

I don't know how many hunters took advantage of it, but ruffed grouse, native to Columbiana County, is one of the finest game birds that exist anywhere. I would certainly appreciate it if the hunters would save the wings and tails of all grouse taken and let me know about it. Drop me a card at Box 202, Beloit, O., and I will stop at your home and pick them up.

—:—

BE SURE and leave a note where they were taken and the date taken. They then will be forwarded to our biological section, which can gather some much needed data that may help future grouse hunting. One thing that can be determined immediately is the age and sex of the grouse. This information is important.

Again I would like to call attention to raccoon hunters that the season opens at 6 p. m., Nov. 15, which differs from last year.

Last year you were allowed to begin hunting on the 15th at 1 minute after midnight. There's no need for any confusion about when the season opens as the law reads: "It is unlawful to hunt or take raccoon or opossum by gun or dog or both before 6 p. m. Nov. 15." The season will end Feb. 15.

Red Couldn't Take It Any Longer

Celtics' Auerbach Goes Into Crowd At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—This is a new National Basketball Association season but an old story was repeated Tuesday night when Boston Celtic Coach Red Auerbach, threatened and taunted by St. Louis Hawk fans, blew a fuse and charged into the crowd.

The fiery Auerbach, who often before has warred with the St. Louis partisans, was leaving the floor after being automatically ejected following his second technical foul in the 98-97 St. Louis victory.

Cries of "you lousy bum," profanity and threats followed Red along the court and, unable to stand it any longer, he surged into the crowd. He was followed by most of the Celtics.

He and the Celtics claimed no blows were struck but he wound up with a sprained and cut left thumb, a skinned right knee and dust-stained trousers.

Auerbach said he fell over a chair.

He told The Associated Press: "It was like walking through a lion's den. Why should you have to take things like this?"

Still fuming, he continued "all I know is when we play with him (Referee Sid Borgia) we don't shoot the fouls. (Bob) Pettit shot as many fouls as our whole team."

He had a point. Pettit made more free throws than the entire Boston team—18 to 15.

The crowd around Auerbach broke up quickly when the bulky Boston players rushed up and police and ushers then restored complete order.

In the other NBA game scheduled Tuesday, San Francisco came from behind a 88-85 score in the last quarter to beat New York 125-106 at the University of San Francisco gym.

Wilt Chamberlain, who holds virtually all the league's scoring records, crossed the 10,000-point milestone in his NBA career. He scored 59 points on 24 field goals and 11 fouls to up his NBA total to 10,033.

Salem Trips EL Runners

Salem, who won its district meet, defeated East Liverpool's district cross country champs and Leavittsburg in a triangular meet Tuesday in the rain at the East Liverpool Country Club.

The meet served as a warmup for the state run Saturday at Columbus.

Salem scored 30 points while East Liverpool and Leavittsburg tied for second with 46 each.

Ray Bush of Leavittsburg won the race over the mile course in a good time of 9:32.

Bruce McCoy was East Liverpool's first runner coming home fourth in 9:49 while Curt Battestelli was 9th, Dick Deem 10th, Roger Linville 11th and Joe Ingram 12th.

Both Salem and Leavittsburg will run in the state meet.

Davis Named National's Leading Soph

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers, a disappointment in his rookie year, had a sparkling second season that earned him 1962 National League Sophomore of the Year honors in the annual Associated Press poll.

The speedy center fielder collected 32 of the 107 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers Association participating in the balloting. Outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, Rookie of the Year in 1961, was runner-up. He was named on 20 ballots.

Davis, 22, a southpaw swinger and fielder, wound up with a .285 batting average after hovering around .300 most of the season. This was a vast improvement over the 1961 campaign when he hit only .254.

Displaying power as well as consistency at the plate, Davis had 171 hits and 21 homers, collected 85 runs batted in and scored 103 runs.

The nation's three leading riders of 1962 — Bill Shoemaker, Ronnie Ferraro and Bill Hartack —had 13 mounts between them one day this fall at Belmont Park. Shoemaker won the only race that day, scoring with odds-on Staretta.

Cepeda OK, Mays Waits His Report

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — San Francisco Giant slugger Orlando Cepeda is all right, and teammate, Willie Mays is still in a hospital.

First baseman Cepeda was told Tuesday after a 1½-hour eye examination that he does not have a vision-impeding cataract over his right eye as he feared last week.

Center fielder Mays, who collapsed in September and spent three days in a hospital, entered Mt. Zion Hospital for several days of tests that doctors say will comprise a complete physical examination.

Giants' ophthalmologist Dr. George Campion examined Cepeda and said his right eye has normal 20-20 vision and his "superb left eye" is 20-15.

Bobby Richardson of the Yankees had hit in eight straight World Series games until stopped by Jack Sanford of the Giants in the second game of the 1962 classic.

Wildcats One Of Best Offensive Producers

NEW YORK (AP) — Unbeaten Northwestern, the nation's No. 1 college football team in this week's Associated Press poll, has some impressive statistical credentials in justifying the ranking.

NCAA Service Bureau figures revealed today that the Wildcats, one of the eight remaining undefeated major schools, have the best passing team as well as the highest scoring outfit.

Sparked by sophomore passer Tom Myers, Northwestern has averaged 219.4 yards per game in the air for five games, completing 80 passes in 130 attempts for a .615 percentage. The Wildcats have scored 169 points for a 33.8 average.

Oregon is the total offense leader, averaging 413.3 yards on the ground and in the air for six games. Michigan State has been the most effective rushing team, grinding out an average of 338.0 yards running.

Reservist Wouldn't Mind Jury Duty At Bit

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—James Craven didn't show up for jury duty Tuesday but he sent word that he wouldn't mind a bit if the judge sent a deputy to bring him in.

Craven, an insurance agent and Air Force reservist, was called to active duty last weekend.

Mississippi Rates Over LSU In Week's Big Pick

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Most football addicts have had rugged Saturday nights—of various types too—but none of those nights will compare with the ruggedness of this weekend's Mississippi invasion of Louisiana State University.

In recent years Mississippi's Rebels generally have found the LSU Tigers more than they could handle. But this time the situation will be reversed with Glynn Griffing's passes dominating over Jerry Stovall's over-all play.

That's the big pick in this week's college football selections. Last week the figures were 42 correct, 10 wrong for an .808 average.

Other picks:

Northwestern over Indiana: Tom Myers, Northwestern's brilliant sophomore passer, has completed two-thirds of his flips and has averaged two aerial touchdowns a game.

Alabama over Mississippi State: The Crimson Tide's defense is stingy.

Southern California over Washington: The home field gives the Trojans a slight edge.

Texas over Southern Methodist: The Texas Longhorns work out their frustration of last week's tie with Rice at the expense of the Mustangs.

Michigan State over Minnesota: Only one team has been able to score on Minnesota this season but the Spartans love that kind of a challenge.

Arkansas over Texas A&M: Billy Moore is the reason.

Auburn over Florida: The remodeled Auburn machine in perfect working order.

Missouri over Nebraska: Both are unbeaten but the Cornhusker defense not on a par with the Tigers'.

Ohio State over Iowa: The Hawkeye attack consists primarily of passes and the Ohioans have many anti-aerial guns.

Penn State over Maryland: Few teams have two such good halfbacks as Penn State's Roger Kochman and Al Gursky.

Georgia Tech over Duke: Tech followers can't decide which of their two tackles, Dave Watson or Rufus Guthrie, should be the No. 1 All-America candidate.

Cross Country Runner Gets Lost—Calls Cab

ARCATA, Calif. (AP) — Jerry Blueford, a freshman from Oakland, Calif., decided to give up football and joined the cross country squad at Humboldt State College.

He went out for a run Tuesday —and got lost.

Blueford ended up in Arcata's residential area about 11 blocks from the campus.

The youngster wasn't nonplussed, however. He called a cab.

Four bits (fifty cents) worth later he was back on campus, reoriented, if somewhat heckled.

The Dodgers and Pirates were the most successful teams against the New York Mets. Both lost only twice in 18 meetings.

'Save-The-Minors' Program To Be Presented Next Month

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's "save-the-minors" program — expected to cost in the neighborhood of a million dollars—has been soldidly outlined and will be presented for approval to the major and minor leagues at their meetings next month.

Charles Segar, secretary-treasurer of organized baseball, made the announcement Tuesday concerning the program that carries out the major leagues' commitment made last May to underwrite at least 100 minor league clubs for the 1963 season.

Segar released an outline of the program presented by John Lalbreath of Pittsburgh, chairman of a joint major and minor league committee which had worked on the problem. Segar said he was optimistic that "the minors and majors both will adopt this program" at the Nov. 26-Dec. 1 meeting.

The player development contract assumes that the minors will go through a revolutionary reclassification program, according to plan, that would list all minor leagues under Triple A, Double A and A headings for 1963.

Under this plan, which must be passed at the minor league meeting scheduled for Rochester, N.Y. in November, the Pacific Coast, International and American Association would retain their Triple A classification, while the Double A Texas and Mexican plus the A leagues (Eastern and South Atlantic) would be in Double A. The others—B, C and D leagues—all would be Class A.

The new contract then would be a standard working agreement of financial aid to the minors, and would substitute for the fixed cash payments previously made to the minors. That came out of the major's player development fund and approximated $850,000 a year.

Under the new arrangement, the major league club would pay the salaries of the manager and the coaches and would provide players and reimburse the minor league team for some or all of the player salaries. The majors also would pay spring training and certain traveling expenses.

In return, the majors would have the right to select minor league player contracts Dec. 15. Players owned outright by the minor league club could be bought by the major league team for a fee between $5,000 and $20,000—before the player could be offered to any other club.

Alex Delvecchio of the Detroit Red Wings is the only new National Hockey League captain this season.

sons who are misinformed about it and don't really know the vast good it does.

Anybody can learn the truth by writing to the United States Committee for UNICEF, United Nations, New York, especially for the bulletin "UNICEF Facts and Fallacies."

YEAR BY YEAR many children begin their destructive pranks a week or more preceding Halloween. Except by indirect suggestions, Halloween parties don't do much for them.

Their parents are directly responsible for these youngsters over this longer period. Besides, how destructive any child may be on Halloween or the period preceding it depends pretty largely on how well his parents have guided him daily in respect for the rights and possessions of other persons from the time he began to toddle.

This means that in respect to things about the house, the youngster needs to learn to avoid certain ones he easily may harm or which might harm him and that he shall gradually learn to handle and use his own things and the furniture with reasonable care; that, moreover, he shall learn to respect the possessions of other members of the family, of persons nearby and those outside the family.

My bulletins, "Teaching Child Care of Property" and "How to Teach Child Meaning of No", may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

He attends fewer routine military, political and economic conferences. He skips most meetings of the powerful standing committee of the Kuomintang, his ruling party.

The change in his pattern of work does not mean Chiang is idling his time away, for his routine would tax many a younger man. He is delegating more work to Chen Cheng, his political heir-apparent, and other ministers, while concentrating on matters of top importance.

Chiang also wants to conserve his health. He regards this as a duty necessary for realizing his government's supreme goal — recovery of the mainland. Aides say Chiang has had no recurrence of the bladder trouble for which he underwent an operation at the end of April.

Chiang regards the Chinese Communists as betrayers of the 1911 revolution which ended more than 46 centuries of monarchical rule in China. His long-standing policy toward them is: a fight to the finish, no negotiations and no compromise.

De Gaulle To Remain At Helm Despite Vote

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle announced today he will remain at the helm of the French government even though only about 47 per cent of France's registered voters backed him in a referendum last Sunday. He had a majority of those who did vote, however.

De Gaulle, anxious for a showdown with the nation's politicians, had said he would resign if the results of the referendum were "weak, mediocre or doubtful." But he did not specify the minimum vote that would keep him in office.

The referendum approved a constitutional amendment proposed by De Gaulle to provide for election of presidents by direct vote of the people. All of the nation's politicians except Gaullists contended he had violated the constitution by not presenting his amendment first to Parliament for approval.

In the vote, 61.76 per cent of the valid ballots were cast in favor of De Gaulle's proposal. Due to stay-at-homes and other abstainers, the yes vote represented only 46.3 per cent of the registered voters. De Gaulle's backing in previous referendums had never been less than 56 per cent of the electorate.

De Gaulle presided today at a Cabinet meeting to review results of the referendum. Cabinet sources said he put emphasis on the 61.76 per cent approving vote.

35 At St. Clair CD Meeting

Thirty-five attended a meeting of the St. Clair Township Civil Defense unit Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

Al Rutecki of Lisbon, Columbiana County CD director, spoke on fallout shelters, food preparation, water containers, toilet care, medical care and places in East Liverpool which could be used as shelters.

The county has shelter space for 14,000 persons. Literature on shelters is available from the Central Fire Station. Anyone with a private shelter should notify their department. The information will be kept private.

Alfred Van Dyne of the city fire department spoke on radiation protection and contamination. He displayed detection meters and gas masks. Anyone interested in courses on radiation may contact him at Central Station.

The county has been divided into 31 CD areas. Herbert Combs of East Liverpool and Fred Fryman of Liverpool Township, directors for their areas, were guests.

Michael Swartz presided in the absence of Joe Arcuragi, St. Clair director.

The mass feeding team served refreshments. Following the meeting, Rutecki spoke to five ham radio operations on their part in CD.

An advanced first aid session will be Friday, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p. m. at Calcutta School. Bermard Shone will be in charge. Anyone with a standard card may take the advanced course. It is open to the public.

Wellsville Women's Program Set Friday

World Community Day will be observed by the United Church Women's Council of Wellsville Friday at 8 p. m. in the Central Methodist Church.

Mrs. Robert Lewis of the host church will serve as chairman. The program will be comprised of special music, a play, "No Time for Despair," and a choral reading with members of the women's groups of the various churches participating. There will be a dedication of articles for churches.

Crystal Growing Method Outlined By Rotary Speaker

Techniques employed by Harshaw Chemical Co. of Cleveland in growing crystals, including the use of soluble salts, were outlined by G. C. Whitaker, assistant to the president, at the Rotary Club's noon luncheon meeting Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

The lecture included a discussion in detail of the physical properties of crystals and their fluorescence, luster, degree of transparency and appearances.

Whitaker explained that the size, shape and appearance and number of "faces" differ from crystal to crystal. But they have three types of symmetry — across a plane, about an axis and about a point.

Crystals generally are formed of regular solids with smooth faces, and the regular forms of different mineral species are called crystals, Whitaker said.

Explaining the physical characteristics of crystals, the Harshaw executive said crystal solids are made up of atoms arranged in "definite repeating patterns," with the atoms grouped into molecules and bonded together by a great force of attraction called cohesion. In glass, the atoms are disarranged, he added.

The arrangement of the atomic structure influences the use of crystals in electrical and optical work. He demonstrated the "cleavage" of calcite which may be broken up into smooth fractures easily.

The fluorescence in crystals is used in the production of television tubes and X-ray machines and in other fields as an instantaneous passer of heat.

Harshaw Co. makes crystals from rock salt, using elevator furnaces to seek purification, a lengthy process, Whitaker said. The crystals are produced in cone shapes. He compared the growing of crystals to making ice cubes in a refrigerator, although the water would need distilling in order for crystallization.

A graduate of Miami University at Oxford in 1927, Whitaker was introduced by Harry W. Thiemecke, program chairman.

The club began its sale of tickets for the annual Rotary Ann party Wednesday, Nov. 28 at the Country Club. Ralph A. Finley, vice president, and Ray Clendenning will sell tickets at each meeting until Nov. 28.

Sidney C. Porter Jr., president, presided. Guests included Richard Brian, the Rev. D. R. Salisbury Jr., rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, and Fred Simmons of Hall China Co.

Ex-Local Woman Gets Suspended Term For Theft

A Harrison County woman who formerly resided in East Liverpool was given a suspended 30-day term in County Jail Tuesday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff when she pleaded guilty to a petty larceny charge in connection with the theft of a $31 transistor radio Oct. 6 from the Eastern Discounts Store on Dresden Ave.

Mrs. Mary Rudolph of Cadiz was named in an affidavit signed Monday by Capt. Robert H. Pyle. A 17-year-old West End girl allegedly involved in a radio shoplifting case in the same store was referred to Juvenile Court at Lisbon. Judge Louis Tobin placed her on probation to her parents Monday.

Questioned by the court, Mrs. Rudolph said she is the mother of four children, the oldest 4. She added that she "learned a lesson" in the case. The judge pointed out she could have been sentenced to a six-month term.

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark advised the court he assumes the radio was recovered. Capt. Pyle could not appear in court because of illness. The judge told Mrs. Rudolph he showed leniency principally because of her four children. Another violation will lead to a jail term, he warned.

2 Porch Rugs Tossed Onto Roof In East End

An East End man told police Tuesday morning vandals removed two rugs from the front porch of his home Monday night and tossed them onto the roof.

The report was filed by H. D. Snyder, 1720 Globe St., who said the vandals also tore his newspaper to shreds and used soap to scribble lewd words on the front windows and door of his home.

The vandalism took place about 7:10 Monday night, he said.

300 At Dinner, Dance Given By Class Of 1941

About 300 attended the 21st anniversary dinner of the East Liverpool High School Class of 1941. Saturday night at the VFW Hall.

Charles Deshler, president of this largest class in the history of the high school, which numbered 333, was master of ceremonies.

The Rev. Mark Peachey of the Bronx, New York City, gave the invocation and was presented a gift for traveling the farthest.

Frank Nentwick was chairman and Bob Hill co-chairman. Address booklets, compiled by Mrs. Frances Martin and Ed Sisley, were distributed.

Two tables were decorated in the school colors of blue and white. Fall flowers completed the setting at the speakers table. Miniature mortarboard hats, footballs and diplomas, tied with blue ribbons, formed centerpieces on the other tables. Favors were inscribed ash trays. The women received blue and white carnation corsages. The hall was decorated with large blue and white balloons.

Charles Sanfilippo and his orchestra provided music for dancing. Mrs. Martin was named chairman for another reunion within three or five years.

Pranks Cost $25 Each

SALEM — Two 17-year-old Salem youths were ordered to make restitution of $25 each for Halloween vandalism at hearings before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin Monday. They broke several windows. The judge imposed a 9 p. m. curfew for each and suspended their driver licenses for 30 days.

2 Area Students Given Posts In Music Group

He Moves Planets Around

Special-effects film producer Alex Haberstroh prepares model of Jupiter and some of its moons for shooting in his New York studio.

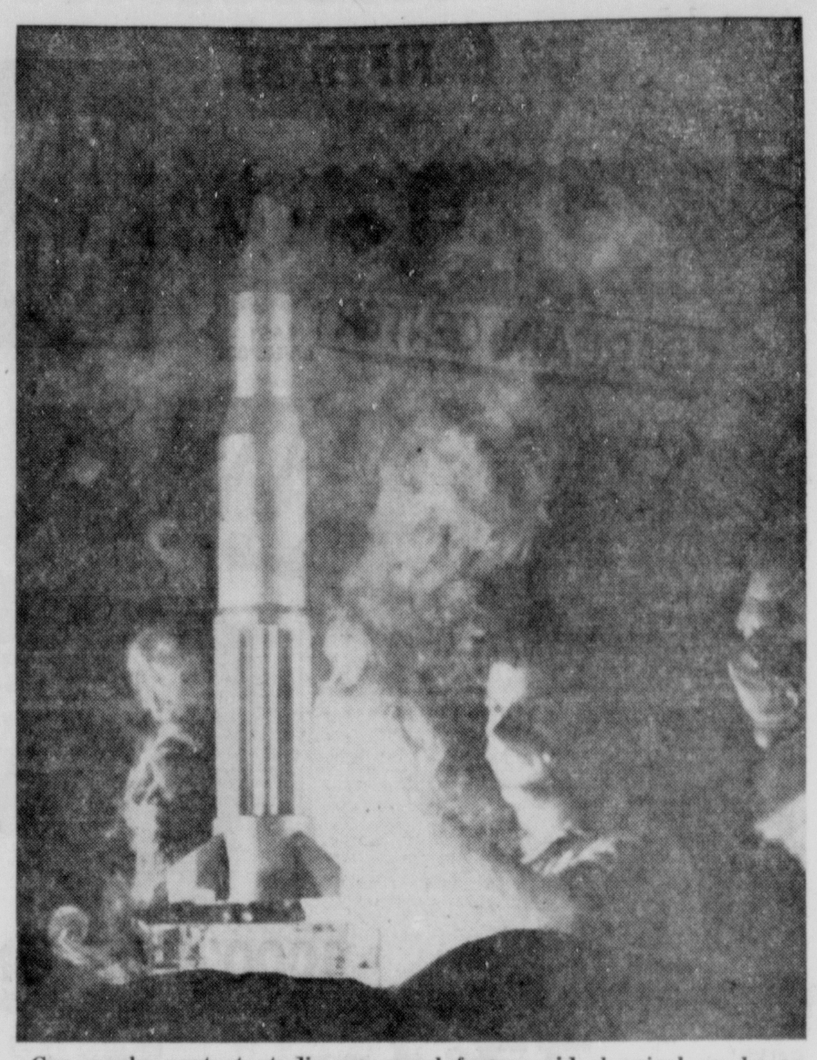
Film Producer Simulates Space Flights, Utilizing Trick Photography and Models

WHEN Alex Haberstroh tells his friends his business is "out of this world" he means every word of it. Mr. Haberstroh, operating from the upper floor of an old loft building in the heart of New York, specializes in films on outer space.

The studio, founded in 1951 to produce special effects for the Captain Video television series, has now turned to producing the first films of major space events through the use of authentic models. These are photographed to give a true-to-life look at the actual event. In these films, miniature objects in their miniature surroundings (such as space ships or planes against stars) are shot with special lighting and special photographic equipment that permit the viewer to travel along.

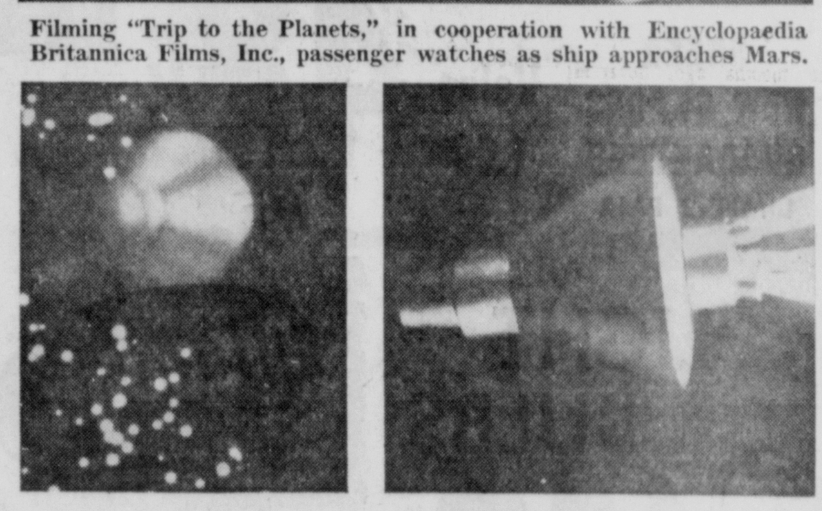
Utilizing a German World War II combat camera, Haberstroh and his small group of craftsmen film all the complex operations in outer space in a room that measures approximately 25 feet by 60 feet. A platform, about the size of four ping-pong tables placed together, serves as base of operations.

A Martian landscape of plaster and sand stands ready at the moment to receive the first visitors from Earth in an atomically-powered space ship. The additional special effects, such as sandstorms and ice crystals shimmering in the sunlight, let the viewer feel that he is living the actual event. Much time is spent on research and on consultations with scientists to insure the authenticity of every sequence.



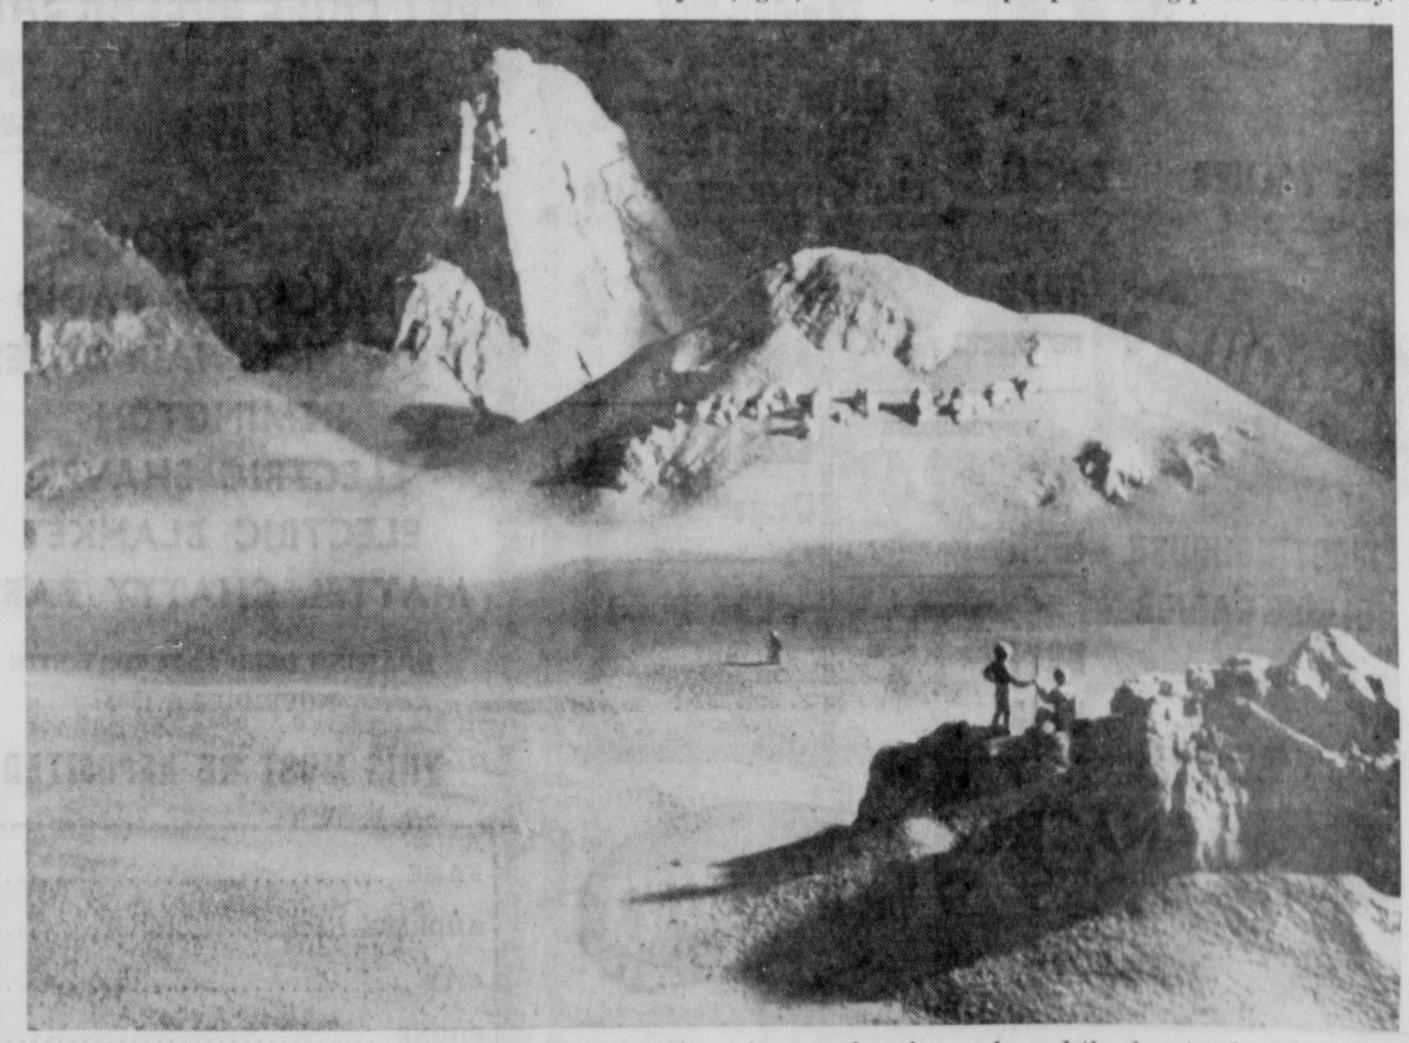
Gas masks protect studio personnel from acrid chemical smoke as they ignite flashlight powder to simulate brightness of a rocket's jet.

Filming "Trip to the Planets," in cooperation with Encyclopaedia Britannica Films, Inc., passenger watches as ship approaches Mars.



Simulated Mercury capsule (left), representing John Glenn in orbit, fires jets (right) to slow 17,300 mph speed during period of re-entry.

Studio Moonshines. Dr. Willy Ley (right), noted space writer and consultant for studio, discusses the landscape of Mars with film producer Haberstroh.



The first manned expedition to Mars is filmed in this realistic setting constructed on table in studio. The mountains are of papier mache and the deserts of sand. The sky is dark blue because atmosphere on Mars is very thin.

Documentaries Can Be Dull, Too

In their zeal to see more documentary programs on TV, critics are inclined to overlook weaknesses in this field. "We could overdo documentaries," says Eric Sevareid, one of the leading exponents of the craft. "They can be bad, too, and doing too many of them might take the bloom off." Sevareid was in the depths of writing his narration for tonight's "CBS Reports" (7:30, Channel 8) as he made these comments, and like most writers, he is filled with pessimism when beating his brains to put the right words on paper.

Hal Humphrey

THIS PARTICULAR "CBS Reports" deals with the Brown-Nixon campaign in California. To keep the hour from being just a dull rehashing of baby kissing scenes and political oratory, Sevareid, with co-producers Gene DePoris and Jack Beck, has been following the candidates and searching for new answers to old questions.

In one of their many long-distance phone conferences with executive producer Fred Friendly, it was decided to change the program's subtitle from "The California Battleground" to "The Seventh Crisis of Richard Nixon." (It had to be changed back again, because the CBS legal department feared Nixon's name in the title might tip the balance of the FCC's "equal time" for candidates rule.)

"The personal drama in this election is what happens to Nixon,' Sevareid says.

TO HEIGHTEN this personal drama, the CBS producers plan to open their report with Sevareid talking from the same Ambassador Hotel ballroom in which Nixon conceded to President Kennedy in the 1960 national election.

"Documentaries," Sevareid continues, "must be entertaining, but at the same time we must be sure the facts are not distorted."

No matter how careful they are on this score, hardly one "CBS Reports" escapes attack from viewers, or some vitally interested party.

Some months ago, Sevareid was scored roundly in a letter from a newspaper reader for his interview with Sen. Barry Goldwater.

-:-

"MY HUSBAND went into a rage," reported the distraught housewife, "and threw an ash tray into our TV set."

A fervent Goldwater man, this fellow evidently believed that Sevareid was asking the wrong type of questions.

"People don't listen," says Sevareid. "They see only what they want to see and believe what they want to believe."

In other words, neutral as he conscientiously will try to be, the partisan makeup of Sevareid's audience will assure his being criticized for being "soft on Brown" or "hard on Nixon" and vice versa.

EVEN MORE responsible for attaining that elusive quality called objectivity in these documentaries are Fred Friendly and his producers, who must put together the overabundance of film shot and resist the temptation to use the more "entertaining" footage, to insure against slanting or distorting the facts of the matter.

"I still believe," says Sevareid, "that television has the ability to expose the untrue or phony. When a man is on the medium long enough, and his appearances are not under the control of experts, his real character emerges."

Severeid worries about his own appearance on TV. Several friends have exhorted him to "do something" about his current Sunday night CBS news program.

"You look sick," is the phrase most often used to describe their apprehension for Sevareid.

"I'VE ALWAYS been sensitive to bright lights," he admits, "so I frown and generally look uncomfortable on TV.'

A well-known producer and close friend of Sevareid's has volunteered to come down to the CBS studio and "light" the commentator personally.

The question then is, would we be looking at the real Eric Sevareid?

Work Set To Start For Rt. 172 Project

The contractor for a two-tenth mile relocation of State Route 172 is moving equipment onto the job site now and will begin work this week.

At a pre-construction conference held in the State Highway Department's New Philadelphia Office, Earl Newell of Columbiana said his firm, Earl H. Newell & Sons, expects to begin work immediately. The company was low bidder on the project following a review of bids opened Oct. 23 by the State Highway Department in Columbus.

Another contractor had been announced as apparent low bidder, but following the usual check of bids for mathematical accuracy, it was found that the Newell bid was low at $54,072.

Represented at the meeting, in addition to Newell and Highway Department officials, was the General Telephone Co. Sam Sowards will be project supervisor. Completion date for the work, which includes replacement of a deficient bridge on Route 172 east of New Garden, is July 31.

$43,600 Nears Goal Of Midland Campaign

The Midland area United Fund campaign now stands at $43,600, or 96 per cent of the $45,471 goal, it was reported at a meeting Monday night of the Board of Directors of the Midland Area Charities.

On the county level, the United Funds of Beaver County needs slightly over $100,000 to meet its goal of $765,652, the county group reports.

The county total to date is $665,014 or 86 per cent of this year's quota, which will supply funds to 42 voluntary health, welfare and character building agencies and services in Beaver County. The campaign ends Monday.

Steve Trbovich, general chairman for the Midland area campaign, expressed optimism that the goal would be achieved. He reported that both Crucible and the Mackintosh plants have piedged more than last year.

He said the Midland drive has aided the East Liverpool Community Fund drive with over $3,000 in pledges to go to Ohio.

He said there has been some disappointment and Midland still has not been "sold" on the United Fund. Area door-to-door and mill solicitations are continuing and some areas have not reported yet. A final report meeting will be held next Monday evening at Lincoln High School.

Last week, the drive stood at $39,787 or 87 per cent of the goal. New pledges include manufacturing $3,100, building trades $70, education $47, real estate $80, and under retail trade, food $45, furniture and hardware $80, general merchandise $40, restaurants and cafes $91 and wearing apparel and cleaners $45, and door-to-door includes, Midland $51.50, Ohio View and Industry $55.60 and Fairview, Smiths Ferry and Ohioville $83.50.

Ralph H. Jewell presided until the arrival of Charles L. Finley, president. Nile Wain, executive secretary, gave the financial and petty cash reports.

After the report, small groups met to discuss aspects of driving and violations. Mrs. Kenneth Woods of Lisbon summarized the discussions.

About 65 attended. The city delegation included Vicki Lamborn, Joy Pipes, Patsy Seibert, Sam Estel, Joe Low, Kenneth Page, Jim Porco and Mr. Charles DeJulius and Mrs. Margaret Williams, sponsors.

Instructors In Hancock Plan Classroom Group

Organization of a Classroom Teachers Association in the Hancock County school system was started at a meeting of instructors from each of the buildings Monday night in New Cumberland.

Mrs. Thelma Daugherty of Marland Heights in Weirton has been serving as president of the former inactive CTA unit in the county.

The new organization was formed to promote higher standards for the profession, add prestige to the position of the teacher, provide more adequate means for classroom teacher participation in association work, and promote better understanding of problems of teachers, sponsors said.

Miss Betty Buben of Chester Elementary was chosen secretary pro-tem.

These teachers were named as a committee to prepare a constitution: Miss Ava Hall of Cove, chairman, Miss Larry Cabal of Pughtown, Mrs. Crawford Haynes of Newell Jefferson, Mrs. Lilly Crissinger of New Cumberland, Mrs. Harold Proudfoot of Weirton Liberty, Mrs. Lucille Ross of Weirton Heights and Miss Buben.

The group expressed opposition to the Executive and Budget Amendment to the Constitution to be voted on Nov. 6. It objects on grounds that "specific deletions and omissions relating to public schools would destroy certain financial safeguards which the present Constitution provides and which guarantee that the state assume its responsibility for public schools."

Next meeting of the new group is Nov. 27 at 7:30 p. m. in New Cumberland High School.

Nominations Made For District Firemen

Nomination of officers was heard at a meeting of the Tri-State Firemen's Association Monday night at Wellsville.

The election will be held at the next meeting to be in Midland. The date will be announced, according to John Laitsch, president.

Fifty attended. An open discussion was held on two-way radio systems.

Lunch was served by members of the host department.

Legion Begins Gift Project

The annual "Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave" campaign was started by American Legion Post 4 Monday night.

Part of an Ohio Legion movement, the program is designed to provide Christmas presented for those in the state's four veterans hospitals and residents at the Soldiers & Sailors Home at Sandusky.

The state goal is $33,000. Last year Post 4 gave $58. Its quota this year has been set at $40. Of this, the committee in charge said $21 already has been raised.

The committee includes Gerald Hughey, chairman, Purle C. Smith, Ed Dailey and Dave Sakol.

A committee composed of Sakol, Isaac Jones and Robert Osborne reported on plans for the annual Veterans Day celebration. A program will be held Monday, Nov. 12, in the post rooms. It will be followed by a luncheon. All members and veterans are invited.

Dan McKeever is commander.

Brown Hurls Charges At DiSalle, Maloon

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Republican candidate for lieutenant governor says he has his own idea as to what is "the biggest fraud being perpetrated on the taxpayers of Ohio."

It is, according to State Sen. John W. Brown, R-Medina, the reports on the state's financial status by Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and his finance director, James H. Maloon.

Brown charged that a Maloon report for the fiscal quarter to Sept. 30 indicating actual expenditures were below estimates was fraudulent because the state operates only on actual revenues and expenditures, not estimates.

Brown also hit alleged deficit spending by the Democratic administration as "prohibited under the constitution and laws" of the state.

Airliner Turns Back As Door Flips Open

CINCINNATI (AP)—Delta Airlines flight 447 was forced to return to Greater Cincinnati Airport shortly after its takeoff for Lexington, Ky., Tuesday because a rear door opened while in flight.

The airline said the plane turned back when its captain, John W. Vann of College Park, Ga., saw a warning light go on. The door handle was found to be about an inch from the full open position.

No one was injured. The plane was reported to be a twin-engine Convair of the same type as one from which a stewardess fell to her death when a rear door blew out Oct. 19.

The plane was enroute from O'Hare Airport at Chicago to Atlanta, Ga.

Ohio Livestock Wins Prizes In Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Rutledge Farms of New Philadelphia, Ohio, put some of its prize livestock on display at the Bluegrass Hereford Show Tuesday and came off a batch of blue ribbons and $1,200 richer.

Most of the Rutledge prize money was for champion female, Bonnie Rupert, a senior yearling heifer; reserve champion, Husker Princess 280, a summer yearling, and four class championships.

Ohioan One Of Three Injured In Explosion

DETROIT (AP)—Paul Osborne, 31, of Lorain, Ohio, was one of three workmen injured Tuesday when a cutting torch apparently started a small explosion in the hull of the sunken British motorship Montrose.

The men were part of the work crew trying to raise the freighter, which sank to the bottom of the Detroit River after a collision with a cement-carrying barge July 30.

5 SPECIAL NOTICES

FALL OUT SHELTERS

One year ago in September I attended a meeting for CD in Dayton, Ohio, I learned at that time that radiation dies 90% in 7 hours and 99% is dead in 48 hours. I also found that 3 ft. of earth, 4 ft. of wood, 2 ft. of concrete, 8 inches of steel or 3 inches of lead is a good safe measure of protection against radiation. As a result I installed a shelter for myself and family and later received the franchise for the Anderson Fallout Shelter. This shelter is buried 4 ft. in the ground, giving you protection against the cold of winter. It's built of steel for strength against concussion. It's equipped with living and sleeping quarters and has ample storage space for food, water and clothing, and is totally fireproof. Over the winter I talked to many people about installing a shelter at a minimum cost with little or no profit to me, but everyone seemed to think the government should provide shelter for their family, as if then it would be free. Many people claimed to be too poor and said these things are only for rich people. When I encouraged installment buying, as I did, they laughed about the bank giving up to 20 years to pay. If they were going to be around for 20 years to pay for a shelter they didn't need one. Well, let me tell you its possible to not be hit with a bomb, but if war comes, it is possible too. You and your family could surely perish from radiation and not be here for sure. Many people feel it's no use because the lingering effects from Strontium 90 would get you anyway. Since that time one of our scientists has discovered a way to cleanse our body of this element. If the poor, barefoot, hungry, and ragged soldiers at Valley Forge had no more courage and backbone than have the Americans of today, there wouldn't be any United States of America. Heed the warning. Face the facts. To survive it takes work and planning, not the day we are attacked, but ahead of time. I pray that this dangerous time passes and we will all have one more chance to prepare to the best of our ability for the danger that lies ahead. When Adlai Stevenson asked the Russian delegate for an answer about missiles in Cuba, the Russian said "you will get your answer in due time." Can you be sure it won't be the release of a few hundred missiles? I am repeating the words I put in my ad last year. I am not saying buy a shelter from me. I'm saying do something. Don't sit on your hands and do nothing. You grownups, Mothers and Fathers, owe a chance to your children to grow up safe, and strong and healthy.

Call or write Fred J. Andreatta, R. D. 2, Lisbon, Ohio.

Junior Editors Quiz on BIRDS

QUESTION: When birds migrate, how do they find their way?

ANSWER: For a great many years, students of birds have been asking themselves this question. Such feats as that of the Greater Shearwater, which flies straight to the tiny islands of Tristan da Cunha in the middle of the vast South Atlantic, seem impossible to explain. Yet scientists have recently come up with certain answers. How do seamen find their way over the open ocean? By taking observations of the sun and the stars. Birds do the same thing, say these scientists. They don't have sextants or mathematical formulas, but they do, for instance, know that the sun should be on a certain angle to their line of flight (1). At night, it seems that they use the stars for the same purpose (2). You may ask, since the sun and stars appear to move and are at different parts of the sky at different times, doesn't this throw the birds out? It's difficult to believe, but scientists say that birds have a kind of built in clock system which permits them to allow for different positions of sun and stars for different times of day or night. Birds also follow mountain ranges, rivers and (3) shorelines, say these authorities.

FOR YOU TO DO: Study the birds around you and see if you can find bird habits which are connected with the daily movements of the sun. Birds start singing at sunrise, for example. What other bird-sun relationships can you find?

150 At Joint PTA Session

Approximately 150 attended a joint meeting of the Hancock County Parent - Teacher Council and the Weirton High School PTA Monday night in Weirton.

Featured was a symposium on the topic of "Education Meets the Challenge of Change."

Participating were Supt. Robert H. Hall, Mrs. Audrey Litman, director of elementary education, and Charles McKinney, assistant superintendent.

Supt. Hall explained how the county system is meeting the challenge of change, emphasizing that attention must be given by teachers to the individual differences of each pupil. "Instructors must install confidence and desire for learning in the pupils," he said.

Mrs. Litman discussed the challenges confronting elementary schools — automation, population explosion, an impact in mathematics and sciences and increased leisure time.

McKinney pointed out that curriculums must measure up to the rigid requirements of a scientific age.
